And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, who is worthy to open the book? And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man was found worthy. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed.

And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. -
Portions of Revelation 5:1-5

In this prophetic image the Lion of Judah sits atop the Wailing Wall in a Hall of Heaven, Mount Sinai in the background. The King of Kings has opened the heavens through the portals of the Universe; His Anthem reigns.

Our mighty King holds the Key of David in His hands, the key of our inheritance. Weep not, He holds and maintains our lot. The lines are fallen unto us in pleasant places; yes, we have a goodly inheritance.

Rest in patience; arise in strength and war in worship, looking unto Yahshua the Author and Finisher of our faith.
