

CHAPTER 1 THE LION HAS ROARED

The lion has roared. Who will not fear? Yahweh God has spoken. Who will not prophecy? Proclaim it on the palaces.....”Amos 3:8-9
“One of the elders said to me, ‘don’t cry. Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has won the right to open the scroll and its seven seals.” Revelation 5:5

This is the vision which was given to me on Kislev 14, 5768 (November 24, 2007). I came to be in the spirit during a Shabbat service and had a mighty visitation from Yeshua and His host of angels. I am recording it as it happened in hopes that others may hear the voice of the Spirit in this matter.

As worship began already there was a weighty presence of the Lord. I closed my eyes and could see Yeshua dancing with me as we sang “Dance with me” by Paul Wilbur. I was lost in his presence and enjoyed seeing Him there.

When the song was over the congregation leader’s wife was weeping. She proclaimed that she had seen Yeshua dancing with everyone in the congregation. I looked at my friend next to me and laughingly said “I thought He was just dancing with me”. She laughed and said “me too”.

Worship continued and one of the elders stood up and said that he must obey the Lord because Yahweh wanted to bring a refreshing to someone there. He said, whoever the Lord has spoken to, come forward to receive from the Lord. I didn’t think it was for me but then I heard the Lord’s voice say “Go, it’s for you” So I went. I hadn’t read the Torah portion that week as I hadn’t had the time, but later I found out it was Gen 32:4-36:43 Va Yishlack which means “and he ‘went’ ”

I ‘went’ forward and the congregation leader joined the elder to pray for me, others also came forward and were prayed for and a mighty move of the spirit swept over the people there. I raised up my arms in surrender to Adonai and each man held an arm. The congregation leader said “You have been struggling with doubt and insecurity”. I was surprised at those words but listened intently to what Adonai wanted to say to me. Then the elder proclaimed “Woman of God receive the fullness of what the Lord has for you” Suddenly I was over taken with the sweetest fragrance I have ever smelled. It was the Ruach ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit). I had smelled His presence once years ago but this was so wonderfully fragrant that I cannot describe it to you. I surrendered my whole being to Him and fell to the floor. I laid there for a few minutes in the weighty presence of the Lord and then thought to get up. Immediately I smelled the fragrance again but it was even stronger. I went limp and felt as if I was glued to the floor and that there was no hope of getting up.

I then saw two feet with sandals and the bottom of white robes walking around my immobile body. I realized it was Yeshua's feet, and then He began to say "I am here to complete you" as He walked around and around my body lying on the floor. This went on for approximately an hour and a half. I don't know how many times He walked around me and said those words but He never stopped and I was conscience of this happening through the whole visitation.

The visitation was interwoven with all the different things the Lord showed me and the places that He took me. I could see from many different view points at the same time. I cannot explain how this is possible but it could only be by His Spirit. I could see all the things going on in the room, in Heaven and Jerusalem at the same time.

The Torah study was about Jacob and how he became Israel. Part of it talked about Jacob's ladder and angels ascending and descending as Jacob slept with his head on the rock in the place called "the house of God (Beit El)."

As Adonai continued to walk around me proclaiming my completion I could hear prophecies being given over the people there. I knew that each word given was somehow relevant to what I was going to see. One word was "Your neck and back hurt because your head is against the wall and you're pushing, trying to make a door where there isn't one. The Lord will reveal the door to you if you just wait." This seems to be the plight of the body of Yeshua. They are a microwave society and want it quick and want it now. Waiting on Yahweh is a lost art, so people just try to push in wherever they can to get what ever they can get. Yahweh had to give me a double dose of His presence to keep me on the floor, because just like everyone else, I was in a hurry.

I could still see Yeshua's feet walking around me and His voice continuing to proclaim "I have come to complete you".

Suddenly I saw a ladder come down from Heaven right over my belly. I could see the angels ascending and descending. Then Yeshua was on the ladder and motioned for me to "come up". Somehow I arose and went, while I still remained lying on the floor with the Lord walking around me. I could also still hear the people being prayed for, as the power of the Lord came down in that place.

There was laughter as people received the fullness of mercy and many were touched by His presence.

I followed the Lord up the ladder and when I got to the top, it was a breathtaking sight, like I had never seen before. All there was, for as far as I could see, was white clouds that glowed with an amber light of the glory of Yahweh. It was so glorious and vastly beautiful, and I stood with my head through the clouds for a very long time in awe of what I was beholding with my eyes. I don't know how long it was and I don't know how I got from that place to the next scene. All I know is that suddenly I was aware of riding on a small donkey with Yeshua. He and I were both dressed in white bridal clothes. He was facing forward and I was in front facing Him, sitting side saddle, with my head on His shoulder. He was holding me as we rode through the clouds and the love of Yahweh permeated my whole being as He held me. I must weep as I write this as it was the most loved I have ever felt, and it was glorious and amazing. It was like I was His princess bride being carried away by my Prince to His Kingdom to live happily ever after. And I could still see Him walking around me on the floor proclaiming completion over me back on earth.

Yeshua had spoken to me that morning to wear white. I really didn't want to, as it was late November, and the only shoes I had for white was summer shoes. I knew I would be cold and it would be a little strange for me to dress like that in this season. I struggled with it, but ended up with the fact that I just needed to obey Him and wear white. I know now that it was His plan so I would know that He was sending a message to His bride. Even the building we were meeting in was a bridal chapel. Adonai had been speaking to me about the bride for about 7 months (since He had led me to this congregation who met in the bridal chapel). I didn't even put all of this together until later.

We came to a clearing in what looked like a very beautiful park. It had big trees and bushes and lots of foliage. There was music playing which was the same music as back on earth in the bridal chamber playing "dance with me" again, and we began to dance together as a bride and groom at a wedding feast. There was joy all around us, and then there were people all around us dancing also in a Davidic dance style. I realized I was also dancing around the bride with the others and that is when I realized that this vision probably wasn't about me. I was just a participator in this visitation to bring a message of completion and preparation of His bride. I knew that everything, the location, the words to the music, the prophecies, and all of the vision were being woven together to bring forth one message to His bride.

Just then a man in the congregation came forth and gave a word that the Lord wanted to “complete us” and that He wanted to give us the gift of Himself. He said Yeshua was wrapped up like a big gift package that hadn’t been opened. He said He wanted us to open Him and unwrap Him to see who He was, but that we hadn’t even bothered to look at Him. He said that it made Him sad. This was just another thread of the tapestry that Yahweh was weaving to bring forth His message to the bride.

While I was dancing within and without the circle with Yeshua the Lord called me aside and spoke a word to me (as the bride). He said to me, “You have been walking in doubt and insecurity, but I have called you as an evangelist, a prophet and an apostle.” I said “no Lord I am not worthy of that call” and began to weep. Yet as He spoke those words to me it was releasing shalom into my spirit to dispel the feelings of doubt and insecurity. He then said “You are going to Israel” and I replied “when Lord”. He said “this summer.” I then asked “what about Fiji and Brazil?” and He said “o.k.” I realize now that these attributes of being an evangelist a prophet and an apostle, are the attributes of the bride, to do the end time work. It is the spirit of Elijah returning and we who are last must be first to step forward. He is calling us to Israel in many different ways.

Then He showed me Peter Paul and David. They didn’t say a word, yet I knew why they were there. Just then I heard a prophecy given in the congregation on earth that said “You think you have to be perfect and that is your biggest downfall”. I knew what the Lord was saying without a word being spoken by these generals of the faith. Yeshua is the only perfect one and none of us are worthy. Even Peter, Paul, and David weren’t perfect. They were just obedient, repentant, faithful and humbly submitted with their whole heart to the Lord and His will. So we don’t have to be perfect to walk in His destiny of brideship and we don’t have to live in doubt and insecurity of our call.

Then David and I began to walk through the Kingdom together. No words were exchanged; we just walked in the pure white glory. It was like the clouds I had seen earlier all snow white but with an amber glow all around.

Suddenly David was Yeshua and we were at the throne room of Yahweh. I so longed to look at Yahweh and His throne but I dared not. Yet in my heart all I wanted more than even life itself was to see His face and know Him in a greater way. Like Moses in Exodus 33-34 where Moses enters into the cloud of His presence and the Lord tells him that he has found favor with Him. So Moses even though he stands face to face with the Lord (Yeshua) in verse 11, in v.13 he begs to know Yahweh's ways so he may understand Him and continue in His favor. In verse 17-23 Yahweh again says Moses has found favor with Him to be known by his name. So Moses BEGS the Lord to "SHOW ME YOUR GLORY"! Yahweh replies to Moses that He will show him His favor and mercy but not His face. "My face you cannot see, because a human being cannot look at me and remain alive. Here is a place NEAR ME; stand on the rock (Yeshua). When my glory passes by I will put you inside the crevice in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand, and you will see my back (the past) but my face (the future) is not to be seen." Later Moses penned the Torah telling of things from the beginning of time (the past) as I believe it was revealed to him in this encounter with the very presence of Yahweh.

During this time the congregation was singing "show me your face" by Paul Wilbur and I could see the Lord still walking around my body on the floor. I stood looking into the beautiful face of my savior Yeshua, yet I knew there was something more. If you have seen the Son you have seen the Father, Yeshua told us when he was on earth. It is like how the moon is only the reflection of the sun, yet it is the same light. For if you look at the sun very long you will be blinded. But you can look at the moon as long as you like. If you look in the mirror is it you in the mirror? Yes and no. It is you but it's a reflection of you. Your express image, just as Yeshua is the express image of Yahweh. He is safe to look upon. There is something more than the ark of His presence, for inside that presence is His glory and the awesome treasure of Heaven waiting to be unwrapped and revealed to His bride. The dowry that is presented to the bride by the bridegroom is to open the door and see His face. His bride must get so hungry to know the Father that death is no longer an issue. So that loving Him with all you heart and clinging to Him becomes the very purpose of your life. (Deuteronomy 30:20) So that in being willing to die to behold Him, you have just chosen life and the blessing.

So as I stood looking into the face of Yeshua I begged Him to “show me His face.” He said “you will die” and I replied “o.k.”

Just then Yeshua took me to my grandson who now resides in Heaven. Takoda had gotten sick at 3 weeks old and it left him paralyzed, blind, deaf, mute, lame, and unable to eat by mouth. He lived 5 years and then went to be with the Lord due to many health issues. He always had a beautiful smile on his face and was dearly loved by the entire family. Here stood my baby boy in front of me totally whole, the way Yahweh had created him. He was so beautiful and he spoke to me and said, “Its o.k. Na Na, I’m waiting for you”. I later realized the condition of Israel and the bride of Messiah in Isaiah is blind, deaf, lame, mute, and unable to eat of the Word (accept Yeshua as Messiah). I also realized that when the bride gets hungry enough to die for His presence, that the veil will be removed and the blind will see. Then the deaf will hear, the lame will walk again, they will hunger for the bread of life, and they will recognize Messiah. Yahweh wants to heal His bride and make her beautiful, whole, and complete in His Kingdom.

I stood in front of Yeshua again in the throne room and begged even harder “Lord please, show me your face”. He then showed me a wall of angels standing linked together and standing on each others shoulders to form a wall of oneness. There was a distinct amber glow coming off of them that I knew was being reflected from the throne of Yahweh. It was revealed to me later that this is the glory cloud that was in the wilderness with the children of Israel. It was the angel of the Lord that went before them, in the cloud by day, and in the fire by night. I felt like the Lord wanted to see if I would settle for the glory, but I said “no Lord, it’s you I want, please, show me your face”. Just then it was as if Yeshua reached up and removed a veil as I looked right into His face. His face and all of Heaven turned into the brightest white light I have ever seen. The light continued to get brighter and brighter and then turned into an amber light. It then turned into purest gold and enveloped everything in Heaven, turning it into the purest gold you could ever imagine.

I only caught a glimpse of the golden city before I was returned to my body in the bridal chamber here on Earth. Yeshua was still walking around my limp body weeping on the floor. Worship was over and they were getting ready to take the offering. I said “Lord I need to get up to give my offering. He replied “Just give me your heart”. So somehow my spirit got up and stood in line under the prayer shawl, and when it was my turn, I took my heart out of my chest and it slipped right into the treasure chest (the (treasure) chest is where the heart is held).

I knew that Yeshua had said in Mark 12:29; 33 “The most important is, Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one, and you are to love Yahweh your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your understanding and with all your strength. The second is this: You are to love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other command greater than these. The Torah teacher said to him, “well said Rabbi; you speak the truth when you say that He is one, and that there is no other besides Him; and that loving Him with all ones heart understanding and strength and loving ones neighbor as oneself, mean more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.” When Yeshua saw that he responded sensibly he said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God”. He also said that ‘where your heart is, there is your treasure.’ We are to store up treasure in Heaven.

I turned around to go back to my body and out of my eyes came the brightest light. It was like the glory that shone on Moses face after He was with the Lord in the tent of meeting. The light shone from my eyes was shining on the community of people there at the bridal chapel. I wept again feeling very unworthy of this glory being revealed in me. “For the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.” has been one of my favorite scriptures for many years. Isaiah 58:8 says “then your light will burst forth like the morning, your new skin will quickly grow over your wound; your righteousness will precede you and Yahweh’s glory will follow you. Then you will call and Yahweh will answer; you will cry and he will say, “Here I am”. All of this is ours when we give to Him the things He’s asked of us and keep His Sabbath. Adonai wants to reveal His glory in His bride, but it can’t happen until she is one with Israel (John 17) and gives Yeshua the full treasure of her heart, and keeps His commandments. He said “if you love me then you’ll keep my commandments.”

I lay down in my body again and it was the time of the service where they speak a blessing over the children. The person in charge had forgotten to appoint someone to pray over the children. When I heard this I wept so bitterly, and knew it was the heart of Yahweh to bless the children, “for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.” I kept hearing “there is no one to bless the children.” The Lord told us that on the Sabbath eve we are to lay hands on our children and bless them. It grieves the heart of Yeshua to see all the missed blessings and destinies in our children because of our failure to obey His word. Yeshua also spoke to Peter and said if you have agape love for me you will feed my lambs (children). That is the highest love, for the highest call of the Lord. He told Peter again, if you have a friendship love for me, you will feed the sheep (adults). I see a lot of friendship love taking care of the adults but, there is no one, who agapes Yeshua enough to bless the children. The bride will love the Lord with all of her heart, soul, and strength, and it will show in how she cares for the children.

Someone finally came forward to bless the children and Yeshua continued to walk around me saying “I’ve come to complete you”. I really believe that all these things are the things on His heart. They need to be done to complete the bride that is without spot and wrinkle. We must be about the Father’s business as the days are short and we must be worthy to escape that which is to come.

Yeshua walked around me and stood in front of me at the same time and He said “Get up” and I replied “I can’t get up Lord”. So He reached out His hand and my hand came up into His and my spirit stood up. He then said “I’m taking you to Jerusalem.” I then saw His back and immediately I was standing on The Temple Mount in Jerusalem. I could see every stone and I was standing on the large stone under the little pavilion that they say Abraham was going to sacrifice Isaac at.

According to Flavius Josephus a first century historian and Dr. Asher S. Kaufman , the true foundation stone lies under a cupola named the Dome of the Tablets, located on the northwest edge of the temple mount. The name alludes to the Covenant as the oracle of God containing the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments. The Ark would have rested in the Holy of Holies situated furthest to the west in the temple. In addition, Kaufman’s theory was based on archaeological evidence collected from the temple platform area and the Talmud’s book of measurement called the Mishnah Tractate. Further verifying this theory, the Dome of the Tablets is the only place where exposed bedrock exists on the temple mount. Not only does this bedrock have the exact dimensions of the foundation stone as recorded in the Talmud, but also several drilled holes spaced according to the Sacred Cubit used only in the construction of the temple.

Ironically no one is allowed to stand on this spot as it is regarded as a very Holy place by Jews and Muslims alike, yet there I stood.

Yeshua stood on the outside of the pavilion and He said to me, "You know how you have always wanted to know where the Ark of the Covenant was hidden? Well I'm going to show you where it is." At this point I was so excited I could hardly contain myself. It was like a dream come true. It had always been my heart to know where it was hidden. And who knows my heart better than Yeshua. Then I saw a golden glow coming from my belly. I looked down to see the Ark of the Covenant inside my belly glowing so bright, with the purest gold you have ever seen.

Dome of the Tablets where the Ark of the Covenant once stood.

I wept so hard at this point I was shaking all over. I was totally undone and overwhelmed with a feeling of unworthiness and joy at the same time. I knew that we were the temple of the Holy Spirit (Ruach ha Kodesh) and the ark of His presence was within us. I knew it in my head but now I could hear it echo in my heart as it was written there. Second Corinthians 6:16 says “ For we are the temple of the living God- as God said, I will house myself in them...and I will walk among you. I will be their God and they will be my people.” It was all so real and alive and awesome. However, before I could even respond, Yeshua pointed upward and eastward and shouted, “LOOK TO THE EASTERN GATE!!!!!!!!!!!! I quickly looked, and right before my eyes, the sky split wide open and out of that crack came The Lion of Judah!!!!!! He was so huge!!! I came to about his chest and he landed on the temple mount right in front of me. I saw every wrinkle in his skin and every hair of his golden coat, and he was so beautiful and powerful. Then his mouth opened and he began to roar. His mouth was huge as were his teeth and the sound of his roar was deafening. The roar of his mouth had such power and authority that the earth in front of the temple mount rolled like waves in the ocean, but it was waves of dirt being ripped up, not water. Terror came over my whole being as I knew those roars and the waves that they produced were judgments being released on the land. In Ezekiel 19:7 it speaks of the judgment on the princes of Israel in these words: He knew their desolate places, F22 And laid waste their cities; The land with its fullness was desolated by the noise of his roaring.

By the third roar I shouted to the Lord as loud as I could, “Lord what about the children?” The Lion of Judah stopped for a moment, and it seemed as if the Lord was Yeshua and the lamb at the same time, I saw Him as both somehow. The Lord shouted “I HAVE ALREADY SEPERATED THE SHEEP FROM THE GOATS!!!!!!!!!!” An even greater terror came over my whole being and I wept uncontrollably as the Lion began to roar again. Judgment had been sealed and those words echoed through my head again and again for days.

After about three or four more roars I gathered the courage to yell out in desperation “But Lord, What about the children?????” Again the Lion paused and the Lord caught me away to another land in a single moment. I saw a young adolescent boy dressed in white linen clothes standing in a field of wheat ready for harvest, it looked like white grass. I then saw an angel swoop down and pick him up and carry him and me back to Jerusalem. I felt this was the harvest and that not only had the sheep been separated from the goats, but also the wheat from the tares, for it is the angels of the Lord that will reap the harvest. The sheep are the children as they follow the shepherd and listen to His voice. The goats are the ones who are always butting heads, and causing division. It will be the sheep who follow Messiah and His commands, and have childlike trust and love for Messiah, who will be caught away to the Holy land.

I wept so hard that my body was shaking uncontrollably and it felt like buckets of tears flowed from my eyes. I knew judgment had been sealed, and that the door had been closed for the unprepared bride. My heart hurt with a great anguish with the thought of the finality of it all.

As I landed on the Temple Mount I looked up and caught a glimpse of the New Jerusalem descending from Heaven. It was a bright city of light still yet a ways off... and then I was back in the bridal chamber again.

As I arrived in the bridal chamber Yeshua now says that not only was He there to complete the bride but was also “covenanting Himself to her”. Yeshua wants to covenant with His bride so she will be a wise virgin, prepared, awake and waiting at the door for Him with her lamp full of oil. This covenant was made very clear at the end of the vision.

The congregation leader is now ready to teach the word and so I told the Lord. “Lord I need to get up to hear the word.” But Yeshua told me to just lay there and ‘drink’ it in. The speaker then could not find his notes anywhere. As he looked for them he looked down at me and said that the ones on the floor could just lie there and bask in the presence. I guess I wasn’t “done (complete)” yet. Then the speaker said I am going to just speak from my heart, and I began to pray for him that he would only say what the heart of the Lord was saying.

The Torah portion was on Jacob (Ya’acov) the deceiver. The teacher talked about how history had repeated itself again and again with deceptions by Abraham (Avraham) calling his wife his sister. Isaac (Yitz’-chak) doing the same and now Jacob was a deceiver also. But “the deceiver is always deceived”. Jacob had to work for Laban twice to receive the wife he bargained for because Laban deceived him and gave him Leah instead of Rachel. Laban changed Jacob’s wages so many times, just to keep Jacob in bondage to him, so he could receive the blessing on Jacob’s life. The enemy wants to keep us in bondage to him to keep us from the blessings the Lord has put on our lives.

Isaac was a son of promise while Ishmael was a son of the flesh. There were children born out of the marriages to Laban’s daughters, the sons from Leah were sons of the flesh while the ones from Rachel were the sons of promise. The children had troubles in their lives because of the way their fathers had gotten impatient and brought forth children that were not in the plan and purpose of Yahweh. Deceivers do things their own fleshly way and not the Fathers way and so they end up with troubles. Even if you are a son of promise if your walking in the flesh, going your own way, you step out of the place of 'son of promise' and into troubles. The only way to break the generational troubles is to declare "that it stops here and now with me". We have to come out of the deception that we have inherited from our fathers and follow the commands of the Word.

The speaker then drew a water vessel and said the only way to get a breakthrough to the next level is to 'drink' (remember Yeshua told me to DRINK in the message) more of the water. Of course water is the word of God. The speaker said 'if you only take one drink and then go on a journey, troubles will come because you don't have enough water (of the Word).' He drew the vessel about one third full. So he said 'take another drink until you are completely full and go on a journey and you will have troubles because you'll run out of water.' Then he drew the vessel running over and said 'if you'll wait on the Lord until you are running over (in the spirit) with the word (in truth), and then go on a journey you will run over on everyone around you. This brings cleansing for you and everyone around you. Then the troubles of life cannot come to afflict you as you are walking in the fullness of the son of promise and His commands. You have waited upon Him and "sought His face' until you are completely full and running over with the full truth of the Word and not the deceptions of man.'

While in the throne room I could've taken 'no you can't see my face' for the final answer, but I just couldn't. I needed more water, I wasn't running over yet. I could've been satisfied with seeing the glory, but that wasn't what I was after. In Exodus 32 and 33 the people did it 'their own way' and built a golden cow and called it Yahweh and worshiped the cow. And of course troubles followed. Yahweh was so angry that he said he could no longer be with them. He would send the angel of the Lord with them and wipe out all their enemies and just give them the land of milk and honey, but He himself would not go with them. Yahweh said I promised the sons of promise, Abraham Isaac and Jacob, the land so I'll give it to them. But they can't have me. How many believers have settled for the angel of the Lord and the land of milk and honey and all the battles being won for them? I think this is the bride with no oil in her lamp. A child of promise, who has no hunger to press in and be filled to overflowing with Him. Willing to walk in the flesh of her own ways, to settle for all the blessings, and go her own way. This is one that has worshiped a golden cow and called it GOD. She is a goat that butts heads, and not a lamb that follows the shepherd and hears His voice of truth. Knowingly she walks in deception like Jacob, unable to get free of deception, so she that can walk in true freedom, as ISRAEL.

But Yeshua's bride must not settle for anything less than His face, "Show me your face Lord" is the song of the bride. She is willing to just lie there and drink in the word of the Lord and seek His face even if it means she must die. The bride with a full lamp is willing to lay down her life for just one moment of ecstasy in beholding the face of the Most High God. The bride is willing to go in and take the Promised Land, even if it means a battle, and go beyond her capabilities, because she must do it "His way." His way is the only way for her.

The speaker made this statement. "Every great man in the Bible was taken to a place that he had never been and it required more strength than he had to give". Doing it God's way always does. But everyone who has come through those places says "I didn't know if I could accomplish it. I didn't know if I could go there and do that". When it is bigger than you are, the only way to accomplish it is for the Lord to do it for you, His way. Failure only comes when we miss the last part which is to praise the Lord for everything (give Him the glory). Failure comes when you do it your own way because troubles will always follow when you seek the glory for your self. Troubles follow the flesh sons (goats) not the sons of promise. Staying in the Lords presence until you are completely filled and running over brings abundance for every good work and abundance where it is needed.

Then the speaker prophesied "God says 'I want to fill you, ARE YOU FULL?'. Don't leave without the fullness (completeness), it will end the generational mess ups. You won't have to make the same mistakes over and over again. Be filled until you're running over." Romans 11: 25 For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the FULLNESS OF THE GENTILES has come in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The Deliverer will come out of Zion, And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;

If I would have gotten up when I wanted to, I would've missed the whole blessing of the vision and seeing the face of the Lord. I tried to get up before I was 'full' to give an offering, and to hear the message, but Yeshua said to just stay there and drink. I am so happy that the Lord didn't let me get up so I wouldn't have to continue to walk in the mess ups of the past generations of the bride. I know He wanted to show me just how much we miss by doing it our way, taking the easy road, and being in a hurry. We also miss so much when we 'think we're full' and that the Lord is done doing what He's doing, when He's NOT DONE. If Yeshua had to walk around me that many times to complete me (the bride), then I'm not even close to being complete (done or fully baked or filled to overflowing). Those that "wait" upon the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint. The bride must be willing to wait in the bridal chamber until Yeshua completes her and her oil is running over, but she must also "continue to drink in the word and seek the face of Yahweh and love Him with all that she is, and do it beyond her own capabilities."

Then the congregation leader closed with these words. "Commit your plans to Yahweh and then they are established. Lay your plans before Him and let Him overflow on them. Do it His way as a son of promise. We are perfected in Him. Let Him take the book of your life and change it to say what His book of life says about you. Repent of the old ways as Jacob the deceiver and let Yahweh change you into Israel. This transformation only comes after an encounter with His presence where you continue to pursue Him and His blessing. Take up your priestly garments and get men clean by spilling over on them. You are His prized possession (treasure) and He is washing you clean".

During the message as I "drank" my bladder became fuller and fuller and I hoped I wouldn't "run over" before the Lord let me get up. I also continued to weep (running over at the eyes) throughout the message for Yahweh was filling me to overflowing and this was the evidence. First it's in the natural and then in the spiritual.

It was time for the leaders to speak a blessing over us which they do at the end of every Sabbath service. It is called the Aaronic blessing and is found in Numbers 6:22-27. It states that this is how to bless the people and by speaking it over them, Yahweh is able to "put His name on the people", so He can bless them (Revelation 7:3). Yeshua was still walking around me saying He was completing me and now covenanting with me. However He stopped now and stood in front of me. He said to me “I’m going to 7 myself to you”. Seven means to covenant and also to complete, and He bent over and wrote a 7 on my forehead in His blood. I knew immediately He was speaking of the covenant of the Sabbath (the seventh day) because this is the sign between us and Him that we are His. I call it my wedding ring, for in keeping His Sabbath Holy it shows I am His. Suddenly it came clear that His bride is a Sabbath keeper and the number of 7 means COMPLETENESS. The bride is completed in the covenant of the Sabbath. Yeshua wants to take a bride without spot and wrinkle, washed in the purity of His word which says we are to keep His Sabbath forever. I know the meaning of the word forever, and it didn’t say ‘until man wants to change it’, because Yahweh never changes. I knew then why He chose this place to send out his message. THIS WAS A SABBATH KEEPING PEOPLE IN A BRIDAL CHAMBER. HIS BRIDE WILL BE WAITING AND COMPLETED AND SEALED IN THE BRIDAL CHAMBER OF THE SABBATH. Yeshua needed to make the message clear. I then knew why He wanted me to wear white and why He chose the music for the worship that He did. It was the first time they had done the song “Show me your face”. Nothing that was done or said was an accident or a coincidence. It was all part of the picture Yahweh was painting for us so we could have no doubt or insecurity about the message.

Then the leaders began to sing the blessing over the congregation and I saw angels appear and stand in front of each Sabbath keeper there and they wrote the name of Yahweh on each ones forehead in the blood of the Lamb, while Yeshua did the same for me. I was weeping again for sheer joy to see this sight and to have this blessing bestowed upon me. The bride has been completed now she is being sealed with the name of The Most High God and King Yahweh.

The blessing they spoke over us in English goes like this: “May Adonai bless and keep you. MAY ADONAI MAKE HIS FACE TO SHINE UPON YOU, and show you His favor. May Adonai LIFT UP HIS FACE TOWARDS YOU and give you His shalom (peace).” It then talks about how the name of Yahweh is put on His people by the priests speaking this blessing over them. The name Adonai is italicized in the reading as it replaces the actual name of Yahweh (YHVH) out of respect for His name, to keep it Holy. The Aaronic blessing was to be said over everyone so they could all receive Yahweh’s name and blessing. His purpose is that all would be sealed for the Kingdom. Ironically this blessing was done, and is still being done, on the Sabbath and feast days when the community of believers came together in obedience to the Torah. I knew that in Revelation it said:

9:4 “they were commanded, not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.”

14:1 “ then I looked , and behold, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty four thousand, having His Father’s name written on their foreheads.

22:4 “THEY SHALL SEE HIS FACE, AND HIS NAME SHALL BE ON THEIR FOREHEADS.”

I don’t know how much plainer it can get. We are so close to the end it is sobering.

In Ezekiel 9:4 it says that there were commanders of the city summoned who had “weapons of destruction” and one among them had a scribes writing equipment to put a mark on the foreheads of the men who were sighing and crying over all the disgusting practices being committed. And then the fury of the Lord is poured out on Jerusalem. What are the disgusting practices? One is the failure to repent (Ezekiel. 7:13), and the worship of the sun god in the house of Yahweh (Ezekiel 8:14-18). When we “call SUNday holy” as the Sabbath of the Lord, and we are doing it in the house of the Lord, that is a disgusting practice to the Lord. We should worship Him everyday including sunday, but He only commanded that we keep the (seventh day) Sabbath Holy. This is the day Yahweh chose to keep Holy and to meet with us. It is the day He set apart for us and for Himself to rest. The children of Israel were exiled for 490 years to Babylon for not keeping the Sabbaths (Feasts) of the Lord. The greatest “weapon of destruction’ amongst the commanders of the city was the scribe who could include you in the Kingdom or exclude you by not sealing you with Yahweh’s Name. This is “the sign between us and Yahweh that we belong to Him” is what the Lord said. Well all the ‘signs’ I ever saw had ‘writing’ on them. The other sign, the Bible says that shows we are His, is when we keep the Sabbath Holy. It is still one of the Ten Commandments and Yeshua is the Lord of the Sabbath so I know He has not done away with it.

I was now so full of water I needed to go run over, in the natural. I also needed to go run over, in the spiritual, on others so that as they read this message from Yeshua that I soaked in for an hour and a half, they could be washed removing spots and wrinkles. There must be repentance and deliverance from being deceived like Jacob and inheriting lies, from our fathers in the faith, about God's Holy days. To get freed of our own ways and do it God's way so we can be changed from Jacob the deceived, into Israel, the son of promise, a.k.a., the bride of Messiah. For it is His good pleasure that all can receive the truth, for the truth will set you free, and Yeshua paid a high price for your freedom.

The Lord allowed me to get up and take communion to seal our covenant by the body and blood of His Son of Promise. As I was getting up I heard the words "Lion of Judah". I knew this phrase was used in the book of Revelation, and I wondered what the whole impact of this vision would be.

I then sat down at one of the fellowship (oneg) tables and I had three gifts delivered to me. The first was from the children's teacher who brought me my grand daughter's lesson as she couldn't come with me that Sabbath. On the front was a picture of Jacob lying with his head on a rock looking to the sky. It was about Jacobs's ladder and the title was, "and you shall be called". I laughed out loud as this was the first that I realized, that the Torah reading for the week was about the very ladder I had just been to Heaven on. Immediately afterwards another girl came and laid down a set of Bill Johnson's cd's called "Quest for the face of God." I laughed again as I knew That Yahweh was confirming His word. I could've danced for joy if I could've only been able to stand. I was still not quite on the planet. Then another girl immediately laid down a card from a Judaica shop where they had beautiful jewelry from Israel. She had a Menorah necklace I had asked her about, so she brought the card to show me where to get one. The Menorah is the national 'symbol of Israel.' I knew He was saying, we as the bride, were being transformed, from being Jacob the deceiver, to being Israel the bride.

Now you would think that was enough confirmations, but there was yet another. One of the leaders in the church came over to me and asked if I noticed there was something missing? I said "I'm not aware of anything being missing." He said the Lord had given Him a word during the service and he hadn't been able to give it. So he told me the last confirmation. He said that the Lord had told him that "there was FULLNESS (completeness) of joy in His presence and that 'THERE IS A TAPESTRY BEING WOVEN TODAY IN THE CONGREGATION'. Well I now understood why there were so many things going on at the same time. I could see from many different viewpoints the things the Lord was doing. I know that the lamb, in Revelation 5 that is released by the Lion of Judah opening the 7 seals, has 7 eyes. Seven eyes can see seven places and thus see completion. When the bride is completed she is sealed. So He was weaving His word into the message and the vision and the words and actions of the whole meeting so that when it was complete the big picture (complete picture) could be seen of what He was revealing to His people.

Together all the different aspects of the bride, become a tapestry of Yahweh's love and completion for her, and a garment without spot or wrinkle. He is trying to complete the tapestry and bring her into His fullness of blessing. A tapestry has many colors. The rainbow has 7 colors and when you mix all the colors together they become white. So to see the big picture (completion) through the seven spirits (eyes) of the lamb they become pure white, a bride dressed in white, without spot or wrinkle. The coat of many colors becomes a pure white robe or gown.

I must conclude with the Haftarah reading two weeks later. The Torah portion was "he continued living" (Vayeshev). When I read the Haftarah Vayeshev in Amos 3:6 my mouth fell to the floor as another sobering truth came from The Word.

"When the Shofar is blown in the city, don't the people tremble? Can disaster befall a city without Yahweh's having done it? Yahweh, God, does nothing without revealing His plan to His servants the prophets. THE LION HAS ROARED.WHO WILL NOT FEAR? YAHWEH GOD HAS SPOKEN. WHO WILL NOT PROPHECY?"

In the fear of the Lord I send out this prophecy and pray that you will hear what the Spirit (Ruach) is saying to the bride. In Revelation 3 it says, that the one with the sevenfold spirit of God sees the Messianic community in Sardis as INCOMPLETE in the sight of God. The message is to turn from sin and remember what you learned and OBEY. To the faithful He says that they have not soiled their clothes, so they can walk with Yeshua, clothed in white, because they are worthy. Revelation 3 verse 10 says about the Philadelphia Messianic community, "Because you did OBEY my message about persevering, I WILL KEEP YOU FROM THE TIME OF TRIAL COMING upon the whole world to put the people living on earth to the test. I am coming soon; hold onto what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. I will make him who wins the victory a pillar in the temple of my God and he will never leave it. Also I will WRITE ON HIM THE NAME OF MY GOD and the name of my God's city the New Jerusalem coming down out of Heaven from my God, and my own new name."

"The Lion has roared" has echoed in my heart again and again. I feel that either the seals have been broken or are about to be broken (Rev.5), so that judgment is coming and the trials that are to come on the earth are eminent. I also feel that it clearly shows that if we keep the word of the Lord, in obedience, we will be kept from the time of trial (Rev.3:10). Whether this is in the form of rapture or just hiding the saints I don't know. I don't think that our salvation depends on our keeping the Sabbath and the Feasts of the Lord. However I do believe that the covering and protection of the Lord does depend on it. Hebrews 4:11 says that disobedience is: "not entering into the Sabbath of the Lord". Now more than ever before, as I feel the vision makes it very clear what Yahweh is saying to the bride. The sheep have been separated from the goats is what Yeshua the Lamb of God said. I don't want to be a goat butting heads with the Word of God and the people of God. And I don't want to have my head up against the wall trying to push through where there is no door. If it's in the Bible let's just obey, it's just that simple

Ezekiel (Yechezk'El) 39:28 and 29 says "Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God, since it was I who regathered them to their own land, I will leave none of them there any more, and I WILL NO LONGER HIDE MY FACE FROM THEM, for I have Poured out MY SPIRIT ON THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL says Adonai Elohim."

Another confirmation came to me that week as someone e-mailed the picture on the cover of the booklet to me of the Lion of Judah, and again my mouth fell open in awe at my Abba. Even the wrinkles on the Lion look the same. It is the Lion of Judah on The Temple Mount roaring. Wow! What a confirmation that was! Is this another confirmation that the LION HAS OR IS ABOUT TO ROAR?

I e-mailed James Nesbit, who is the artist, and asked for permission to use the image and he graciously consented to my using it. It is called "Weep Not" and is a prophetic image that was downloaded to him from the Lord. Those words are the words from Revelation chapter 5. I don't know if you know it or not but the only time "the Lion of Judah" is used in the Bible is in Revelation 5. Could this be a marker of where we are?????? You decide, in the fear of the Lord.

CHAPTER 2 THE LION IS ROARING

UPDATE: I received this article from a friend in January of 2009 who knew what the significance of it was to me. I had to include it in this newly updated chapter.

Mystery Roar Detected From Faraway Space

Friday, January 09, 2009

By Andrea Thompson

LONG BEACH, Calif. —

Space is typically thought of as a very quiet place. But one team of astronomers has found a strange cosmic noise that booms six times louder than expected. The roar is from the distant cosmos. Nobody knows what causes it.

Of course, sound waves can't travel in a vacuum (which is what most of space is), or at least they can't very efficiently. But radio waves can.

Radio waves are not sound waves, but they are still electromagnetic waves, situated on the low-frequency end of the light spectrum.

Many objects in the universe, including stars and quasars, emit radio waves. Even our home galaxy, the Milky Way, emits a static hiss (first detected in 1931 by physicist Karl Jansky). Other galaxies also send out a background radio hiss.

But the newly detected signal described here today at the 213th meeting of the American Astronomical Society is far louder than astronomers expected. There is “something new and interesting going on in the universe”, said Alan Kogut of Nasal’s Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Md.

A team led by Knout detected the signal with a balloon-borne instrument named ARCADE (Absolute Radiometer for Cosmology, Astrophysics, and Diffuse Emission).

In July 2006, the instrument was launched from NASA's Columbia Scientific Balloon Facility in Palestine, Texas, and reached an altitude of about 120,000 feet. (36,500 meters), where the atmosphere thins into the vacuum of space.

Arcade's mission was to search the sky for faint signs of heat from the first generation of stars, but instead they heard a roar from the distant reaches of the Universe.

"The universe really threw us a curve," Kogut said. "Instead of the faint signal we hoped to find, here was this booming noise six times louder than anyone had predicted. '

Detailed analysis of the signal ruled out primordial stars or any known radio sources, including gas in the outermost halo of our own galaxy.

Other radio galaxies also can't account for the noise — there just aren't enough of them.

"You'd have to pack them into the universe like sardines," said study team member Dale Fixsen of the University of Maryland "There wouldn't be any space left between one galaxy and the next." The signal is measured to be six times brighter than the combined emission of all known radio sources in the Universe.

For now, the origin of the signal remains a mystery.

"We really don't know what it is," said team member Michael Seiffert of NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif.

And not only has it presented astronomers with a new puzzle, it is obscuring the sought-for signal from the earliest stars.

But the cosmic static may itself provide important clues to the development of galaxies when the universe was much younger, less than half its present age. Because the radio waves come from far away, traveling at the speed of light, they then represent an earlier time in the universe.

"This is what makes science so exciting," Seiffert said. "You start out on a path to measure something — in this case, the heat from the very first stars — but run into something else entirely, some unexplained."

'I wondered if you knew how sound waves travel?' Sound waves come from a source, widen, then hit a source, and bounce back even wider, forming what looks like a big SHIN. Sound waves travel in the form of a shin which is a Hebrew letter that is a form of Yahweh's name. The form of the shin is also written in the shape of the mountains in Israel where the Temple mount stands as Yahweh's signature proving His ownership .If the radio sound waves are all in the shape of Yahweh's name then everything that has breath is praising Him, and His name is being lifted up in all of the earth. Wow that's powerful!!!!

... The Lion of the Tribe of Judah is roaring and His signal is brighter and His sound is louder by far than any man or power on earth or in the air. Is this another indicator of where we are in time?

Another explanation is found in Revelation 10 :1Next I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was dressed in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head; his face was like the sun, his legs like columns of fire; 2 and he had a little scroll lying open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, 3 and shouted in a voice as loud as the ROAR OF A LION; and when he shouted, seven thunderclaps sounded with voices that spoke. 4 When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up the things the seven thunders said, do not write them down!" 5 Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted his right hand toward heaven 6 and swore by the One who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it: "There will be no more delay; 7 on the contrary, in the days of the sound from the seventh angel when he sounds his shofar, the hidden plan of God will be brought to completion, the Good News as he proclaimed it to his servants the prophets.

Revelation 19:1-91 After these things,

I heard what sounded like the ROAR of a huge crowd in heaven, shouting, "Halleluyah! The victory, the glory, the power of our God! 2 For His judgments are true and just. He has judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her whoring. He has taken vengeance on her who has the blood of his servants on her hands." 3 And a second time they said, "Halleluyah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever!" 4 The twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshipped God, sitting on the throne, and said, "Amen! Halleluyah!" 5 A voice went out from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great!" 6 Then I heard what sounded like the ROAR of a huge crowd, like the sound of rushing waters, like loud peals of thunder, saying, "Halleluyah! ADONAI, God of heaven's armies, has begun his reign! 7 "Let us rejoice and be glad! Let us give him the glory! For the time has come for the wedding of the Lamb, and his Bride has prepared herself - 8 fine linen, bright and clean has been given her to wear." ("Fine linen" means the righteous deeds of God's people.) 9 The angel said to me, "Write: 'How blessed are those who have been invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb!'" Then he added, "These are God's very words."

The first roar is actually in Acts 2:2-4 which says "Suddenly there came a sound from the sky like a ROAR of a violent wind, and it filled the house where they were sitting. Then they saw what looked like tongues of fire which separated and came to rest on each one of them. They were filled with the Ruach HaKadosh and began to talk in different languages, as the Spirit enabled them to speak.

"Wow!!!!!!!!!!!!!! The second sound of the roar from Heaven could be signaling there are no more delays in the day of THE SOUND released by the seventh angel. The third roar is the sound of the cloud of witnesses singing praises from Heaven for the victory of Yahweh in the battle against evil and for His just judgments on the earth.

The last roar indicates the activities in Heaven in preparation for the wedding supper of the Lamb. How blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the lamb. All of these elements are contained in the visitation in this chapter. And now we can actually hear the sound of the roar coming from Heaven, louder and purer than any radio signal. It must be a signal or sign from Heaven to get ready for the wedding feast. Prepare your heart and you garments and be filled with His Spirit.

I also received this prophecy from a much anointed prophet that I know named Rodney Goodwin, the same week (1-16-09) as this article on the roar in Heaven. In the mouths of 2 or 3 witnesses every word shall be established. "THE ROARING OF THE LION OF JUDAH" "AS WE ENTER THIS SEASON OF CHANGE AND CHANGE AND MORE CHANGE, IT SEEMS ALL THE EXITS ARE CLOSED, ALL THE DOORS ARE SHUT, ALL THE SUPPLY LINES ARE CUT OFF AND WE ARE WONDERING IF WE HAVE LOST OUR WAY. IT SEEMS AS THOUGH ALL OF OUR EFFORTS AND BATTLES WERE ALL FOR NOTHING. EVEN THE ENEMIES DEALS CAN SOMETIMES LOOK GOOD JUST TO TAKE THE PRESSURE OFF AND QUIT. TODAY I TELL YOU, OUR KING IS NEVER LATE, HE IS ALWAYS ON HIS TIME AND IN HIS PURPOSES, NOT OURS. WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF MANY BATTLES ON MANY FRONTS. MANY OF OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS HAVE BEEN WOUNDED AND SOME EVEN TAKEN OUT. I ENCOURAGE YOU TODAY NOT TO STOP, NOT TO QUIT BUT TO RAISE YOUR HEADS AND PRAISE LIKE YOU HAVE NEVER PRAISED BEFORE. FOR HE IS GOOD AND HIS MERCY ENDURES FOREVER. ONE ROAR FROM THE LION OF JUDAH AND THE ELEMENTS OF OUR CIRCUMSTANCES ARE PURGED, PULVERIZED AND DEMOLISHED UNDER THE SOUND OF HEAVEN AND HIS MIGHTY ROAR DELIVERS US INTO HIS DESTINY. TODAY IT MAY LOOK LIKE

THINGS ARE CLOSING IN, BUT I CAN HEAR IT, THE SOUND OF THE LION OF JUDAH THE GREAT VIBRATION OF HEAVEN RELEASED INTO THE EARTH TO LITERALLY VIBRATE OUR ENEMIES OFF OF THEIR POSITIONS AND FORTIFICATIONS. LORD SEND DOWN YOUR RIGHTEOUS JUDGMENTS BY YOUR MIGHTY RIGHT HAND, BREAK THE BACK OF THE ENEMIES ENCAMPMENTS RELEASE YOUR POWER (ROAR) IN THE LAND. THE DAM IS BREAKING AND THE RIVER IS OVERFLOWING ITS BANKS, THE HOST OF HEAVEN IS STANDING READY TO MOVE ON OUR BEHALF TO FULFILL THE PURPOSES OF HEAVEN AND THE FIRE IS BEING RELEASED TO CONSUME THE SACRIFICE TO CUT OFF THE OLD DAY, AND BIRTH A NEW ONE. COME NOW LET US PRAISE OUR KING TOGETHER AND ALLOW HIS GLORY TO SHINE ON US, IN US, AND THROUGH US. EVERY LEVEL OF OUR BEING IS BREAKING THROUGH THESE LINES OF FORTIFICATIONS AS THE LION OF JUDAH ROARS AND THE HOST OF HEAVEN RESPONDS TO HIS SOUND. REJOICE, REJOICE, REJOICE AND AGAIN I SAY REJOICE. CHAPTER 3

How Yeshua kept the Sabbath

Many of you have read my testimony about the awesome healing I received from RSD, MS, Reynauds, Interstitial cystitis, Fibro myalgia, arthritis of the spine, Tri-geminal neuralgia, duodenal ulcer, environmental disease, and many other illnesses that had me totally disabled for more than a decade. The healing came because of my keeping the covenant of Sabbath. You can read the full account of how Yeshua healed me in chapter 6 . I have to say that I have had so many people, who are desperate for healing, like I was, wanting to know how to keep the Sabbath, so they can walk in health, blessing, and abundance as the bride of Adonai . So due to overwhelming responses I am writing this to tell you how I found shalom peace, about what was expected of me by Yahweh, to enter into His Holy day.

We are of a generation who have lost the fundamental truths and basics of The Word of Yahweh (Torah). When we find truth we don't quite know how to implement it in an effective and Biblical way as we have no example to look at. For so long we have been taught that these things were only for the Jews and we have skipped over that part of the Torah and said it wasn't for us, as we were taught to do so. However the Word from the beginning included the strangers and foreigners in "Yahweh's Sabbaths".

Ex 12:49 - One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

I also, when I found that the Word expressly included me in the keeping of Sabbath, was at a loss as to how to implement this properly into my life. So I looked to the same method I had been using for 28 years of serving Adonai.

When the Torah was written in my heart as I accepted Yeshua as Messiah, I immediately began reading the B'rit Hadashah, other wise known as the New Testament. I read it approximately 7 times in the first 3 months. I noticed each time I read the gospels, that a different theme came forth and it seemed like a whole new book. I saw that just as Torah has many layers of truth and understanding, so does the life of Messiah, who is the living breathing Torah, come off of the pages of the book. So I began asking Adonai specific questions before I read about the life of Yeshua, and I always found the answer in the example of His life. I looked to Him to lay the pattern for everything I was supposed to do and be, and believe. This has proven, over the now 33 years of serving Him, to be effective in keeping balance in my walk with Mashiah (Messiah). As patterning our lives after Him is what Yahweh wanted us to do. He gave us Moses (Moshe) and the Torah, but we failed to follow His Torah and instructions. So He sent us His Son, in His express image of Torah, so that we could be changed from glory to glory as we beheld His face.

Yeshua was raised going to the Synagogue and keeping Torah and the Sabbaths of Yahweh. Yeshua was a Jew and He came to complete the Torah not eliminate it. He observed all the Sabbaths of Yahweh as it is instructed that we do. You will see Him in John 10:22 and 23 in the Temple on Hanukkah, in Luke 2:41-42 keeping Pesach (Passover) and in John 4:45 talk of His many miracles done at the Festivals of Yahweh. He kept the Feasts of Adonai as an example for us to follow. Yeshua came to fulfill as only He could do, not do away with Torah. He himself fulfilled the Feast of Pesach as the lamb of Yahweh who removed the sins of the world with His own blood. You can see Him always about the Father's business and keeping Shabbat in the Synagogue "as usual." This was on the Sabbath not Sunday, He never changes so why should His Holy Day. "Remember the Sabbath and keep it Holy" is part of His Instructions and He respected it and lived it before men on the proper day and in the proper way.

Luke 4:14-19

14 Yeshua returned to the Galil in the power of the Spirit, and reports about him spread throughout the countryside. 15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone respected him. 16 Now when he went to Natzeret, where he had been brought up, on Shabbat he went to the synagogue as usual. He stood up to read, 17 and he was given the scroll of the prophet Yesha`yahu. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written, 18 "The Spirit of ADONAI is upon me because he has anointed me to announce Good News to the poor; he has sent me to proclaim freedom for the imprisoned and renewed sight for the blind, to release those who have been crushed, 19 to proclaim a year of the favor of ADONAI." 20 After closing the scroll and returning it to the shammash, he sat down; and the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him.

21 He started to speak to them: "Today, as you heard it read, this passage of the Tanakh was fulfilled!"

Yeshua was the fulfillment of all prophecy and of Passover. He began to expound on the Word at a very young age as His understanding was beyond His years. How could the living Torah not be an exact reflection of the written Torah? That would be a contradiction of truth and break the code of the Universe in Yahweh. For in Him there is no shadow of turning and He cannot lie.

John 1:1-17 says:

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 All things came to be through him, and without him nothing made had being. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of mankind. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not suppressed it. 6 There was a man sent from God whose name was Yochanan. 7 He came to be a testimony, to bear witness concerning the light; so that through him, everyone might put his trust in God and be faithful to him. 8 He himself was not that light; no, he came to bear witness concerning the light. 9 This was the true light, which gives light to everyone entering the world. 10 He was in the world – the world came to be through him -- yet the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own homeland, yet his own people did not receive him. 12 But to as many as did receive him, to those who put their trust in his person and power, he gave the right to become children of God, 13 not because of bloodline, physical impulse or human intention, but because of God. 14 The Word became a human being and lived with us, and we saw his Sh'khinah, the Sh'khinah of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. 15 Yochanan witnessed concerning him when he cried out, "This is the man I was talking about when I said, `The one coming after me has come to rank ahead of me, because he existed before me.'" 16 We have all received from his fullness, yes, grace upon grace. 17 For the Torah was given through Moshe; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah. 18 No one has ever seen God; but the only and unique Son, who is identical with God and is at the Father's side -- he has made him known.

Hebrews 1:1-2 and 10-12 says:

1 In days gone by, God spoke in many and varied ways to the Fathers through the prophets. 2 But now, in the acharit-hayamim, (end of days) he has spoken to us through his Son, to whom he has given ownership of everything and through whom he created the universe. 3 This Son is the radiance of the Sh'khinah, the very expression of God's essence, upholding all that exists by his powerful word; and after he had, through himself, made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of HaG'dulah BaM'romim. (The Greatness, The Majesty, YHVH on High)

10 and, "In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth; heaven is the work of your hands. 11 They will vanish, but you will remain; like clothing, they will all grow old; 12 and you will fold them up like a coat. Yes, they will be changed like clothing, but you remain the same, your years will never end."

Complete Jewish Bible

John the Babtist came as a witness to testify of Him and to get people to know and be faithful to Yahweh. That is being faithful to the Word which is Torah. There are rules in every house which are the rules to keep our children safe. We also came with instructions and we must follow them to be safe and blessed. The commands of Yahweh are literally called "the instructions." If Yeshua is the Torah, then He is our instruction book on how to be safe, blessed, and complete. You know men never want to read the instructions, they just look at the pictures, and figure it out. Sometimes it works out and sometimes you have parts left over that somehow don't seem to fit anywhere. Yahweh sent us an illustrated instruction book, since we didn't want to read the instructions. Somehow we haven't seen the whole picture Yeshua was illustrating by His life and actions, and we have parts left over that we don't know what to do with, so we just assign them to the Jews. And we have inherited the lie that we don't have to do what the Jews did. Yeshua was a Jew and we are to follow Him, and His Instructions. They aren't Jewish Instructions, they are Yahweh's Instructions, written with His very own finger in stone, and then in our hearts at Pentecost. Had the believers in Mashiac not kept the Feast or Sabbath of Pentecost we could not be saved by having the Instructions written in our hearts. And if they're written there and we aren't hearing what they say, maybe our heart has not been circumcised yet.

John 4:14,19-24 says:

14 but whoever drinks the water I will give him, will never be thirsty again! On the contrary, the water I give him will become a spring of water inside him, welling up into eternal life!"

19 "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet," the woman replied. 20 "Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you people say that the place where one has to worship is in Yerushalayim." 21 Yeshua said, "Lady, believe me, the time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Yerushalayim. 22 You people don't know what you are worshipping; we worship what we do know, because salvation comes from the Jews. 23 But the time is coming -- indeed, it's here now -- when the true worshippers will worship the Father spiritually and truly, for these are the kind of people the Father wants worshipping him. 24 God is spirit; and worshippers must worship him spiritually and truly."

Yeshua knew the nature of man and how they want to cut out the parts they don't want and do it their own way, so He is directing the ones in Samaria, a country not so far off from Israel and claiming to be the children of Abraham, to look to the Jews for the way to worship in truth and to look to Yeshua the Messiah to worship in truth of the pure eternal spring of life that flows through Him. You will never thirst again if you follow the instructions as they will lead you to the well of living water. Yeshua is truth and spirit as it was the (breath) or Ruach ha Kodesh (Holy Spirit) that breathed the life essence in Him that brought Him off of the pages of Torah to walk on earth as the Son of Yahweh, The Instructions, The Way, The Truth and The Life.

How did Yeshua demonstrate to us the Sabbath? He went to the Synagogue on the Sabbath and He taught the Word with power and authority. He also showed us over and over again that there was healing in the Sabbath, in the fact that He always healed on the Sabbath.

Luke 4:31-44

31 He went down to K'far-Nachum, a town in the Galil, and made a practice of teaching them on Shabbat. 32 They were amazed at the way he taught, because his word carried the ring of authority. 33 In the synagogue there was a man who had an unclean demonic spirit, who shouted in a loud voice, 34 "Yaah! What do you want with us, Yeshua from Natzeret? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are -- the Holy One of God!" 35 But Yeshua rebuked it: "Be quiet, and come out of him!" The demonic spirit threw the man down in the middle of the crowd and came out of him, having done him no harm. 36 They were all astounded and said to one another, "What kind of teaching is this? Why, he gives orders with power and authority to the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37 And reports about him went out through the whole surrounding district. 38 Leaving the synagogue, he went to Shim`on's house. Shim`on's mother-in law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked him to do something for her. 39 So, standing over her, he rebuked the fever; and it left her. She immediately got up and began helping them. 40 After sunset, all those who had people sick with various diseases brought them to Yeshua, and he put his hands on each one of them and healed them; 41 also demons came out of many, crying, "You are the Son of God!" But, rebuking them, he did not permit them to say that they knew he was the Messiah."

You can see that even after the sun went down He is still healing, and deliverance was coming forth as the enemy recognized the authority in Him was one and the same as Yahweh's.

LUKE 13:10-17" Yeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on Shabbat.

11 A woman came up who had a spirit which had crippled her for eighteen years; she was bent double and unable to stand erect at all. 12 On seeing her, Yeshua called her and said to her, "Lady, you have been set free from your weakness!"

13 He put his hands on her, and at once she stood upright and began to glorify God. 14 But the president of the synagogue, indignant that Yeshua had healed on Shabbat, spoke up and said to the congregation, "There are six days in the week for working; so come during those days to be healed, not on Shabbat!" 15 However, the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Each one of you on Shabbat don't you unloose your ox or your donkey from the stall and lead him off to drink? 16 This woman is a daughter of Avraham, and the Adversary kept her tied up for eighteen years! Shouldn't she be freed from this bondage on Shabbat?" 17 By these words, Yeshua put to shame the people who opposed him; but the rest of the crowd were happy about all the wonderful things that were taking place through him."

Luke 14:1-6

1 One Shabbat Yeshua went to eat in the home of one of the leading P'rushim, and they were watching him closely. 2 In front of him was a man whose body was swollen with fluid. 3 Yeshua spoke up and asked the Torah experts and P'rushim, "Does the Torah allow healing on Shabbat or not?" 4 But they said nothing. So, taking hold of him, he healed him and sent him away. 5 To them he said, "Which of you, if a son or an ox falls into a well, will hesitate to haul him out on Shabbat?" 6 And to these things they could give no answer."

Yeshua demonstrated the instructions here, that healing is allowed on the Sabbath. Not only is it allowed but it is necessary, just as it is necessary to take care of the animals that we have been given to care for. We don't ask if we should take care of them, we just do what is necessary to care for them without wondering if it should be done.

Now let's see what Yeshua said about profaning the Sabbath so we can know how "the Instructions" showed us a picture of what Shabbat should look like.

Matthew 11:25-30 says: 25 It was at that time that Yeshua said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you concealed these things from the sophisticated and educated and revealed them to ordinary folks. 26 Yes, Father, I thank you that it pleased you to do this. 27 "My Father has handed over everything to me. Indeed, no one fully knows the Son except the Father, and no one fully knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son wishes to reveal him. 28 "Come to me, all of you who are struggling and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Yeshua is getting ready to reveal a great truth to just ordinary people. He starts off

By saying that the only way to fully know Yahweh is through Him, which is Torah

(He is the Word). But it is the spirit of Yeshua that opens the revelation of the Torah to a child like heart. Then He begins to reveal His heart as Lord of the Sabbath which

He will declare that He is, in the next few verses. He is telling you that if you have burdens, and struggles to come to Him. This could very well be accounted as stress, and that is a huge source of illness today. So if we get rest in our souls and the stress leaves we will automatically be healed, as His word says "we are healed".

The "moed" of Adonai is the Sabbath where He waits for us to lay down our lives and be with Him, it is an "appointment" with the Most High, which is what moedim means. He says He will give us rest, which is another word for the Sabbath, or resting place of Adonai. Now He reveals that the yoke of Sabbath is easy, not burdensome or something to struggle with like the Pharisees had taught. Laying more and more burdens upon the people until no one could fulfill its statutes. He says take the easy yoke of the Lord of the Sabbath and learn about it from the true illustration of Torah. The indicator that His way is perfect is in the fact that He teaches out of a pure heart of humility not prideful like the Pharisees. They rule with a fist of iron yet Yeshua is Lord and is gentle. The fruit of coming to Him in the true instruction of Sabbath is your soul will find rest. How many souls do you know that are truly resting in Him, and are not burdened or struggling with one thing or another from the cares of life? He says His yoke is easy and His burden is light. If you are being driven by the burden of Sabbath and keeping it Holy that is the spirit of pride and it comes from the Pharisees. It is a joy to enter into His presence and cease from our regular work to be with Him and to do His work. I once heard a story about a man who went to Israel. He was with the tour guide on a little dirt street where he saw a man with a rod beating a herd of sheep down the road. The man asked the tour guide "why is the shepherd beating the sheep?" The tour guide answered "that isn't the shepherd, that's the butcher." Well what better illustration could we have than that? The shepherd leads us beside still waters and restores our souls, while the butcher beats us into going down a road that leads to destruction. Just obeying the Torah without wanting to know Him and be with Him and love Him with all of your heart is profaning the Sabbath. He wants compassion not animal sacrifice. He wants our love and fellowship not our rituals.

Now here is what follows in the very next chapter. Remember man is who separated the chapters with numbers so we could find the scriptures. It says during that time, what Time? The time he was talking about the rest.

Matthew 12:1-13

1 One Shabbat during that time, Yeshua was walking through some wheat fields. His talmidim were hungry, so they began picking heads of grain and eating them. 2 On seeing this, the P'rushim said to him, "Look! Your talmidim are violating Shabbat!" 3 But he said to them, "Haven't you ever read what David did when he and those with him were hungry? 4 He entered the House of God and ate the Bread of the Presence!" -- which was prohibited, both to him and to his companions; it is permitted only to the cohanim. 5 "Or haven't you read in the Torah that on Shabbat the cohanim profane Shabbat and yet are blameless? 6 I tell you, there is in this place something greater than the Temple! 7 If you knew what 'I want compassion rather than animal-sacrifice' meant, you would not condemn the innocent. 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat!" 9 Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue. 10 A man there had a shriveled hand. Looking for a reason to accuse him of something, they asked him, "Is healing permitted on Shabbat?" 11 But he answered, "If you have a sheep that falls in a pit on Shabbat, which of you won't take hold of it and lift it out? 12 How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore, what is permitted on Shabbat is to do good." Then to the man he said, "Hold out your hand." As he held it out, it 13 became restored, as sound as the other one.

Talmidim means disciples and P'rushim means Pharisees. So Yeshua and the disciples are hungry and they begin to pick the wheat and eat it. There is always a Pharisee around when you aren't performing to the letter to criticize you. But here they are persecuting The Lord of The Sabbath, for being the illustration of truth. But Yeshua answers them about the things they know. He says that David and his friends were hungry they ate the forbidden bread of the presence. David was the King and a priest, as we have also been called, because of what Yeshua has done. David fed the hungry with the things of Yahweh so he was not profaning the Temple. We are the temple of the Holy Spirit (Ruach ha Kodesh) and the bread of His presence dwells within us when we choose life, He is the bread of life. Part of keeping the Sabbath is bringing the bread of His presence to the people. Then he says that the Torah itself states that the priests are to do the work of Yahweh on the Sabbath by slaughtering the animals. That work profaned the Sabbath yet they were held blameless because of their office as priests, and it was the work of Adonai. Yeshua then declares that He himself is greater than the temple and if they knew what it meant to know what the desire for compassion rather than animal sacrifice meant, they wouldn't condemn the innocent. Which means, if they even knew what the word compassion meant, they wouldn't be criticizing the innocent, and driving them to the place of heavy burdens that are unbearable. Then Yeshua declares that He is the Lord of The Sabbath. Shouldn't we follow the Lord of the Sabbath to know how to observe the times of Yahweh instead of following the burdens and rules of man?

He goes on from there and goes right into the Synagogue. By now the Pharisees have to be livid as He just declared that He is Lord of the Sabbath and now He is entering the Synagogue. So they try to trap Him by asking if healing is permitted on the Sabbath. He declares that it is not only permitted, but natural, in the Kingdom of Yahweh and He says what is permitted is "to do good". Well it's just that simple. We must do good on the Sabbath. Heal the sick, feed the hungry, visit those in prison, take the gospel to those that are in darkness, encourage one another, and most important: Enter into the presence of the Lord and cease from our own works and do His work. We must also do what Yeshua did and gather together with others to read and study Torah. I love what it says in Isaiah 58. Notice the healing that comes after obedience to the Word.

1 Shout out loud! Don't hold back! Raise your voice like a shofar!
Proclaim to my people what rebels they are, to the house of Ya'akov their sins.
2 "Oh yes, they seek me day after day and [claim to] delight in knowing my ways. As if they were an upright nation that had not abandoned the rulings of their God, they ask me for just rulings and [claim] to take pleasure in closeness to God,
3 [asking,] 'Why should we fast, if you don't see? Why mortify ourselves, if you don't notice?' "Here is my answer: when you fast, you go about doing whatever you like, while keeping your laborers hard at work.
4 Your fasts lead to quarreling and fighting, to lashing out with violent blows. On a day like today, fasting like yours will not make your voice heard on high. 5 "Is this the sort of fast I want, a day when a person mortifies himself? Is the object to hang your head like a reed and spread sackcloth and ashes under yourself? Is this what you call a fast, a day that pleases ADONAI? 6 "Here is the sort of fast I want - releasing those unjustly bound, untying the thongs of the yoke, letting the oppressed go free, breaking every yoke, 7 sharing your food with the hungry, taking the homeless poor into your house, clothing the naked when you see them, fulfilling your duty to your kinsmen!"

8 Then your light will burst forth like the morning, your new skin will quickly grow over your wound; your righteousness will precede you, and ADONAI's glory will follow you. 9 Then you will call, and ADONAI will answer; you will cry, and he will say, "Here I am." If you will remove the yoke from among you, stop false accusation and slander, 10 generously offer food to the hungry and meet the needs of the person in trouble; then your light will rise in the darkness, and your gloom become like noon. 11 ADONAI will always guide you; he will satisfy your needs in the desert, he will renew the strength in your limbs; so that you will be like a watered garden, like a spring whose water never fails. 12 You will rebuild the ancient ruins, raise foundations from ages past, and be called "Repairer of broken walls, Restorer of streets to live in."

13 "If you hold back your foot on Shabbat from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call Shabbat a delight, ADONAI's holy day, worth honoring; then honor it by not doing your usual things or pursuing your interests or speaking about them. 14 If you do, you will find delight in ADONAI - I will make you ride on the heights of the land and feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Ya'akov, for the mouth of ADONAI has spoken."

Now some of you will say that Keeping the Sabbath is only for the Jews, but here is what Isaiah 56 says about that.

1 Here is what ADONAI says: "Observe justice, do what is right, for my salvation is close to coming, my righteousness to being revealed." 2 Happy is the person who does this, anyone who grasps it firmly, who keeps Shabbat and does not profane it, and keeps himself from doing any evil. 3 A foreigner joining ADONAI should not say, "ADONAI will separate me from his people"; likewise the eunuch should not say, "I am only a dried-up tree." 4 For here is what ADONAI says: "As for the eunuchs who keep my

Shabbats, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant: 5 in my house, within my walls, I will give them power and a name greater than sons and daughters; I will give him an everlasting name that will not be cut off. 6 "And the foreigners who join themselves to ADONAI to serve him, to love the name of ADONAI, and to be his workers, all who keep Shabbat and do not profane it, and hold fast to my covenant, 7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples." 8 Adonai ELOHIM says, he who gathers Isra'el's exiles: "There are yet others I will gather, besides those gathered already."

And here is what it says in Exodus.

Ex 12:49 - One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

"So there remains a Sabbath keeping for the people of the Lord." Hebrews 4:9.

Now lets look at the meaning of this next scripture:

13 "You are salt for the Land. But if salt becomes tasteless, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except being thrown out for people to trample on. 14 "You are light for the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Likewise, when people light a lamp, they don't cover it with a bowl but put it on a lamp stand, so that it shines for everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before people, so that they may see the good things you do and praise your Father in heaven.

17 "Don't think that I have come to abolish the Torah or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish but to complete. 18 Yes indeed! I tell you that until heaven and earth pass away, not so much as a yud or a stroke will pass from the Torah -- not until everything that must happen has happened. 19 So whoever disobeys the least of these mitzvoth (commands) and teaches others to do so will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But whoever obeys them and so teaches will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness is far greater than that of the Torah-teachers and P'rushim, you will certainly not enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

Salt is used in covenant and preserving the covenant. So if we have lost the desire to keep the covenant with Yahweh and enter into His Sabbaths we have lost our covenant and will be thrown out. Like Yeshua said doing good is what is required of us on Sabbath. This is about Torah as it speaks of Torah next. Yeshua has not released us to a greasy grace of whether we feel like keeping His covenant or not and keeping the Sabbath Holy is one of the ten commandments. He is saying that obedience to Torah and teaching others to do it in a right spirit by following our Instructor and living word picture, will make us more righteous than any of the Pharisees or teachers. This is your righteousness preceding you or going before you. You shall surely be blessed as you have chosen life and the blessing, you are a priest of the Most High, you are walking in compassion and humility, not rigid rules and regulations and pride. You are delighting in the Sabbath and in your creator and in the Lord of the Sabbath. Yeshua came to complete the Torah by illustrating its truth to us so we may walk in Torah in the right spirit and be blessed.

Now lets look at what I feel are important ways of keeping the Sabbath. These are things I have worked out between me and Yeshua. Each person is to work things out between themselves and Yeshua. The Torah says to not kindle a flame on Shabbat. So I don't cook on that day or do any housework, unless it is for a sick friend or family member, then it is acceptable. Sabbath begins at sundown on Friday evening and ends at sundown on Shabbat. Before the sun goes down I like to put on a pot of soup in the crock pot. Some people might not agree with this but I feel Ok with it. I skip my normal hot cup of tea until Sabbath is over. I live in Arizona so the sun is quite hot here. So sometimes we get burritos or hot sandwiches the day before and in the morning put them in the window of the car. It really heats them up nicely. We have no exchange of money or doing business as this is listed as not being acceptable. It is also not acceptable to get someone to work for you.

I like to light the candles before the sun goes down and take communion. I like to watch for the first star to come out so I know that Sabbath has begun. My granddaughters sometimes come over and we make it like a tea party. We climb up in the tree house and watch for the first star, Then we light the candles say the blessings and take communion and pray. It makes it really fun for the children. My husband and I like to speak a blessing over our children and grandchildren even if they aren't present. If we have the Shabbat eve meal on Friday evening, I don't wash the dishes until Sabbath has ended.

I like to read the Torah portion for the week and then listen to it on the internet. I like Glenn McWilliams Torah study, but there are others that are nice. You can find the weekly Torah portions on line also. I like the Messianic sites as they give the corresponding readings in the B'rit Hadasha, or New Testament.

I also like to have a time of worship and resting in Adonai. Sometimes I write a song or just sing one I know. I like the fact that if a song I wrote brings someone into His presence, I have brought the bread of His presence to the hungry. This also is the work of the Lord. Just sit and be quiet and let Yahweh reflect with you on the week. Repentance is good and reconciliation with any that you may have wronged. If we judge ourselves then we don't have to be judged. Then just read the Psalms or your favorite verses and love the Lord with all of your heart soul and strength. Call on Him and He will answer as He has set this time aside to be with you.

You are not supposed to travel far from your home on that day, but we are so far from any community of believers, that this is hard to do, unless we stay home. Sometimes we do stay home once or twice a month. Just to get saturated in the Word. Sometimes we make phone calls or visits to pray for the sick or encourage believers. When we spend the whole day with other believers at the community we find we don't always feel the refreshing we get from being alone with Yahweh and resting in our home. Again though, we are not to forsake the gathering of ourselves together even the more as the time grows short, and we are definitely there. Depending on where you live, it is sometimes hard to find Messianic communities to fellowship with. Look on the internet and do the best you can. It will be well worth your drive to hear the Torah discussed and learn the Davidic dance and the joy of worship. One caution, try to find a spirit filled community as some of the ones that shy away from the Holy Spirit tend to be dry and sometimes have that pride we must stay away from (leaven of the Pharisees). But even in a spirit filled, but not spirit led community, there can be differences of opinions on who should, and how to, keep Shabbat. Just agree to disagree and walk in love and shalom and keep the Sabbath Holy together.

As Yeshua said "do that which is good" and I find the word expresses our duties best as workers for Adonai: Isaiah 58:6-7

"Here is the sort of fast I want - releasing those unjustly bound, untying the thongs of the yoke, letting the oppressed go free, breaking every yoke, sharing your food with the hungry, taking the homeless poor into your house, clothing the naked when you see them, fulfilling your duty to your kinsmen!"

Matthew 7:12-14, 19-23

12 "Always treat others as you would like them to treat you; that sums up the teaching of the Torah and the Prophets. 13 "Go in through the narrow gate; for the gate that leads to destruction is wide and the road broad, and many travel it; 14 but it is a narrow gate and a hard road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

19 Any tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown in the fire! 20 So you will recognize them by their fruit.

21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord!' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, only those who do what my Father in heaven wants. 22 On that Day, many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord! Didn't we prophesy in your name? Didn't we expel demons in your name? Didn't we perform many miracles in your name?' 23 Then I will tell them to their faces, 'I never knew you! Get away from me, you workers of lawlessness!'

Don't be found lawless or instruction less for Yeshua himself is giving this warning. He says if you love Him you will keep His instructions. If we do miracles and haven't kept the basic Instructions it is fruitless and unacceptable in His eyes, because we didn't love Him enough to keep His commands. This means we weren't doing it for Him, with compassion and love.

We also must not just go through the motions like it's a trend. It has to be from your heart. I have seen some who go to the Messianic Community but go shopping or out to the movies afterwards. Some go out to dinner on that day and there is an exchange of money. Remember His yoke is easy and His burden is light. If you are in a position where you have to exchange money and there is no other way, repent and go on. There is no need in loading yourself up with guilt, but be sure to repent as it is important to Yahweh that you do so.

Delight yourself in Him and in the time He has set aside to be with you. Plan to be with Him and prepare yourself for that time. Look forward to your time together and you are going to see awesome blessings come upon your life. Healing, deliverance, miracles, new depth and hunger for Torah and understanding that you have never known before. The list of abundance is endless as it is obedience that brings the blessings of Yahweh. Remember our (gentile) verses in Isaiah 56 and what Yah has promised us who keep His Sabbaths.

2 Happy is the person who does this, anyone who grasps it firmly, who keeps Shabbat and does not profane it, and keeps himself from doing any evil.

3 A foreigner joining ADONAI should not say, "ADONAI will separate me from his people"; likewise the eunuch should not say, "I am only a dried-up tree." 4 For here is what ADONAI says: "As for the eunuchs who keep my Shabbats, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant: 5 in my house, within my walls, I will give them power and a name greater than sons and daughters; I will give him an everlasting name that will not be cut off. 6 "And the foreigners who join themselves to ADONAI to serve him, to love the name of ADONAI, and to be his workers, all who keep Shabbat and do not profane it, and hold fast to my covenant, 7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

Shalom friends, I hope that answers your questions. Love to all.

Chapter 4 The Children of Promise

This chapter is about the 100 fold blessing God has for His Children of Promise for the end time and His covering of protection. The Lord demonstrated this to me by multiplying beans during a flood in Texas, multiplying chocolate muffins at a banquet, and other exciting miracles that brought confirmation of the truth He was releasing. He then opened the parable to me about the 30, 60, and 100 fold blessing and how this is the key to know who the Children of Promise are, and how to move from provision to abundance no matter what the economy is. This message so encouraged me to not worry about the hard times we're going through or about the tribulation, for our mighty Yahweh has it all under control and has prepared abundance through Yeshua at the beginning of time. Adonai also showed me the place of entering into the abundant life of the Kingdom through the key of David and what that key is.

Revelation 3:10-13 says:

10 Because you kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. 11 I come quickly. Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. 12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Yerushalayim, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

Acts 2:39

For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

Galations 3:29

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Galations 4:28 "NOW WE, BRETHREN, AS ISAAC WAS, ARE THE CHILDREN OF PROMISE."

I have to say I didn't understand the child of promise thing until Yahweh taught me what it meant. The way He revealed this to me still amazes me. But here is how it began.

I began to feel a great urgency about the hour we live in. I could not forget the visitation I received from the Lord when He took me to the Temple Mount. I could hear over and over again the statement given by the Lamb of Yahweh on the Temple Mount, that the sheep had already been separated from the goats. I could see clearly again and again in my head the land being ripped up in huge tsunami waves of judgment.

Many prophecies were being fulfilled, but not at the old, one every few years time frame. It seemed as if the word was being proclaimed on the news everyday with prophecy after prophecy being fulfilled. And after the many dreams of end time happenings and warnings I had had in the last year, and others also, it all culminated in “the Lion of Judah roars” visitation. I knew judgment was on its way in a huge way.

I began to worry about how the Lord would provide for me and my family. I knew things would be unlike anything we have ever seen before. There would be great famine, possible nuclear attacks, war, lack of water, and desperation on every side of life. So I told the Lord, I don't have time or money enough to get a well and set up everything on solar in case there is no electricity. I don't have the right kind of land to raise my own food. It's too hot to store food unless you have a special place for it. I haven't bought food to store and what about gasoline? If there is no electricity there is no gas because the pumps won't work. So that means there is no transportation. I began to pray for the Lord to be my provider in this matter.

I kept being impressed by the Lord about the message the congregation leader gave, when I had the visitation of the Lion of Judah has roared, about the sons of promise walking in the blessing and the sons of the flesh having troubles on every side. I didn't really think that that had anything to do with what I was seeking Him for, however Adonai showed me differently.

In the middle of all of this the Lord spoke to me and my husband to remodel our house. For years the Lord told me to decorate His Kingdom not my house. I love to decorate so it was a kind of fast before the Lord for me. My husband and I poured our efforts into evangelizing and building Yahweh's Kingdom. We let our house go concerning repairs and focused on the Lord. Now here we are at the end of days when there is so much to be done and the Lord speaks to both of our hearts to fix up the house. I didn't get it, but His ways are higher than mine so we just did it. I really wanted to record a new CD and minister for the Lord but I know the importance of obedience so I did as He said, what seemed to be a mundane non spiritual task. We were going to do the roof first but the housing market crashed and our friend didn't have any work. So my husband said “do you want to do the kitchen first so we can give Richard some work?" And of course I said yes. We had an old air conditioning vent system that we really didn't want to tear out because it meant more money and work to be done to the old house. We hadn't had central air in the 12 years we lived in the house despite the 110+ temperatures. It was just too expensive and we only needed it during monsoon so we suffered through with window units. The rest of the year the swamp cooler did just fine and kept the bills down.

Well we tore out a wall to expand the kitchen and my husband tore off the end of one of the pop out vents that was added in the 80's as our house was built in 1955. There was a newspaper folded neatly inside the vent in the wall. There were other news papers crumpled up and falling apart around the vent that were dated from 1984 but this one was from 1995 and was folded neatly as if it had just been placed there and it was not deteriorated like the others were. He pulled it out and handed it to me and said "let's see what was happening in the past". So I opened it and there was the headline from another city far a way about a group of people who were called in 1949 to prepare a place for the end time for people to go. I was glued to the story as I read each line and looked at the pictures. The people were already old in the story and it had been 13 years since the story was written. The story told of receiving the call and then preparing and waiting for the promise. They traveled for 12 years around the country waiting on the Lord to show them where to go and preaching the end time message to prepare the peoples hearts for the end of days. Their message was one of living a Holy life consecrated before the Lord, and now they're in the 60's, so most people just weren't interested as it would mean a very strict life style of Holiness. The Lord had spoken to the children of promise many details of consecrating their lives before Him. I have to say I don't know if I could've been obedient to their call, however I am sure thankful that they obeyed. They were led to the land Yahweh had spoken of in the same year as Israel's 6 day war. They purchased it by a miracle and in the next few years they built this refuge for Yahweh's people, after they had lived in tents in 110+ degrees on the land for a year. They did all the work themselves and forged out of a barren desert land, an oasis like you have never seen before.

These children of promise have lived only on the provision of the Lord for almost 50 years now. Yet they have 80 acres of land with all solar cooling and date trees and gardens and an olympic sized swimming pool. Their main building is built in Biblical numbers and fashion and it was all directed by the Lord. They have food stored and already have a rationing system in place for food and water to remain for a long period of time to feed many people. Every one of them works the land and equipment, as they have no help from outsiders, although all are welcome to come and visit with them. People are welcomed with open arms of love and sent away with arms full of dates and tomatoes and other produce they might have on hand. At the time of the article there were only 5 of them left alive.

Here it was 13 years later and I didn't think any would be left alive. But I just had to find out.

So I went in search of them. It took some doing but we found them. There they were, only 2 of the original ones left now, and a third one who wandered in off the desert later. They were very old but healthy and still working. It was amazing how with their bare hands they had built this beautiful oasis that seemed almost surreal in the barren place they were in.

They took us on a tour and were very friendly. They gave us dates and tomatoes from their land. I was going to give them some money and the Lord spoke to me and said these are children of promise. You give them a one hundred dollar bill and tell them that it is prophetically declaring that they are under the 100 fold children of promise blessing. Well I didn't even know what that was, but I did it and prayed over the leader of them and she was very blessed.

When I left, I got in my car and began to weep. The Lord spoke to me and said "Here you were worried about how YOU were going to accomplish my provision to take care of you. You are not under the blessing of provision; you are a "child of promise" as a Sabbath keeper. I called these people to prepare this place for you before you were even born. Everything you need is here and I even had the newspaper put in the wall for you to get you here all in my timing.

I knew then what Yahweh was talking about in the Lion has roared visitation, when He said I was walking in doubt and insecurity. Not just me but the bride of Yeshua. We are all walking in a place that isn't the place of trust just like the children in the wilderness when they thought that Yahweh couldn't provide for them, and they gathered more manna than was necessary for that day. They were walking in doubt and insecurity over provision for the basic needs of life. The only time they were allowed to gather extra was for the Sabbath. Whatever we gather in these last hours will not spoil or mold or run out. There will be enough to feed the 5000, with baskets full left over. That blessing rests on the shoulders of the one who holds the key of David. And it is imparted to the ones who keep His Word in obedience and don't deny Him.

The Lord reminded me of how He had multiplied beans in Texas a few months before that. I had gone on a ministry trip to Abilene. Yahweh had impressed me to go see a movie before I left. I'm not much into movies and the trailer for this one looked rather sacrilegious so I wasn't interested. But I was so impressed by the Lord to go, so I went. It turned out to be one of my all time favorite movies. It was about Noah's ark in the modern day. I already knew I was to teach on repentance in Texas and about the days of Noah being marked by a lack of repentance. So it is today, people have no remorse, no morals; their conscience is seared over with a hot iron. Even in the pulpit you don't hear about repentance, just money and provision. I'm sure Noah preached a hundred year message of repentance but no one listened. I'm sure he told them about judgment and a flood coming. They didn't listen or hear, they just went on doing what they'd always done. Noah prophetically built the ark and in Hebrews 11:7 it says that Noah, by trusting, put the world under condemnation and received the righteousness that comes from trusting. Do you see that it was the prophetic act of building the ark that brought the rain and condemnation of the world? Had Noah not obeyed and trusted and not built the ark, the flood would not have come.

I'm sure when the people saw the rain starting and the earth opening up with floods of water that they became believers really fast since it had never rained before. I'm sure they began to repent before they perished in the water. However the doors to the ark were closed by Yahweh and only He could open them. It was too late for them to enter in, just like the 5 foolish virgins in Matthew 10. The door had already been shut. The doors have been closed by Yahweh to an unrepentant disobedient unbelieving people to the Promised Land, who hadn't kept His word.

Even in the movie, the modern day Noah's message was to repent before the flood and the SIN bill was passed. WOW! The movie totally confirmed the message that Yahweh had impressed me to give on repentance and Noah's Ark.

So I went to Texas with 2 meetings scheduled. One at the home of my friend Lou on Sabbath and the other on the first day (sunday) at a ladies meeting. When I got there I took my friends to the movie about Noah's ark because I knew that they just had to see it to understand fully what I was going to teach. They also were totally blown away by the truth held in the movie.

After we went home we stayed up and talked about the Lord like always, until midnight and then fell dead asleep. That night the biggest storm that has hit that area in 50 years hit. About 1:00 am my friend Lou woke up and was wide awake. She said she knew she needed to pray so she did. At 1:30am I was awakened with a need to pray also. At 1:43am the phone rang and I was very concerned with what was wrong. It was my friend's son who is a fireman calling to tell us that there was a huge flood. The lady who had seen the movie with us that day, Linda and her husband were right on the creek that had overflowed. Lou's son couldn't get out of his driveway, the water was so high, to check on them so he wanted us to go. Our house sat up on a hill with a moat like ravine around it, so we were safe.

I jumped out of bed when I heard the phone ring, Lou was coming to wake me up and I met her at the door. We were both wide awake, and got in the van and headed down the hill. When we got to the entrance to Linda and Jerrel's land, the river met us. There was normally a road that went down in the property to the house on the creek. We were just shocked and didn't know what to do. We went back to the house as it continued to pour rain. The creek had totally covered the road like a huge river swallowing up everything in its path. It was really dark and hard to see what was going on, but everything the headlights exposed was shocking. When we got to the house there was a truck in the driveway and even as I write this one year later I cry at the devastation that we saw.

Standing at the front door were our friends Linda and Jerrel soaking wet in pj's with blue lips and shivering so hard I could see it from 100 ft away. On the back of the truck on the tailgate were 2 other neighbors who were in their pjs and were severely cut on the arms from getting out the window to the roof to save themselves from sure death. Their little dog wasn't so blessed, he died in the flash flood that destroyed their whole house and washed everything they owned down the river.

The fireman in the truck had rushed to check on these 2 families who lived on the creek that was now a river and when he got to the first house he saw this man and his wife on the roof. He had no idea how he was going to save them when a boat floated up with the keys in it. He jumped in and drove to the house and got the people down.

Just then he heard someone screaming "Jesus help us!!!!!!!!!!!!!!". Our friends had awoken to go to the bathroom, to water up to their ankles and rising quickly. They couldn't get the doors opened to get out of the house, so they climbed up on the kitchen counter as the water was rising so fast that the refrigerator floated past. Linda's husband told her they would have to get out of the house but she didn't know how to swim. He had recently had open heart surgery and had no strength so they were both terrified of climbing into the raging flood and being swept away. However it was better than drowning inside the house as was becoming evident with the fast rising water, or being electrocuted as all the lights remained on even though the house was full of water. They climbed out the window and held onto a rock wall and then grabbed the flag pole and held on and prayed for help. They held on for approximately an hour miraculously as Jerrel held on for himself and Linda.

It is actually impossible that they could hang on with freezing cold water up to their necks in a raging flash flood. They were already in weakened conditions and one of them in their 70's and one in their 80's. However I believe that is why the wakeup call for prayer for me and Lou came in only a short time after going to sleep. We both knew to pray, but didn't know what about and we were wide awake when we should have been sleeping soundly.

When the fireman heard Linda and Jerrel screaming he went towards them and saw them hanging onto the pole. He had no idea how he would keep the boat close enough to them without it hitting them in the head. He also had no idea how he would get them in to the boat. But he prayed for Yahweh to help him and somehow the miracle came and he managed to save them. He then dropped them off next to a field of cactus and told them they would have to walk to the road so he could pick them up in his truck. They walked through the field, unharmed by cactus, and made it to the road.

They were met at the road by the fireman in his truck and he wanted to take them all to the hospital, but Linda and Jerrel wanted to come to Lou's house, while the other couple went on to the hospital.

Later when we went back to Linda and Jerrel's house when the waters receded, the pole they had clung to was ripped out of the ground and washed away by the powerful current. So not only did the Lord hold them to the pole so they wouldn't be washed away and drowned, but He sent a boat with keys in it to a fireman who was willing to try to help them no matter what the cost. The Lord held the pole in place until they were safe in the boat, then He got them into the boat with out being harmed or slipping away in the current. Yahweh then walked with them in the dark through a water covered field of cactus so they could arrive unharmed. Our God is an Awesome God!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Now here on the doorstep are our friends frozen and bruised and going into shock. We grabbed them and I said "we've got to get them warmed up fast", they were blue and shaking so hard. I said throw Jerrel in the bath tub clothes and all, and fill it with warm water and I'll put Linda in the hot shower. Then you make some hot coffee Lou and we'll find them some dry clothes and blankets. We gave to them warm clothes and all the blankets we could find and tried to warm them up. We managed to find sweats for them and big warm blankets and slowly they thawed out, but their emotional shock remained. We worked on them all day keeping them busy with phone calls so they couldn't think about the loss and devastation.

Jerrell had many very nice guitars, banjos, and fiddles and some were very old. I told the workers when they were able to get into the house to look for the guitars first. They went and all of the instruments were floating on the water in their cases unharmed. The cases took the damage but the instruments were untouched. Except a banjo which was full of muddy water. I helped Jerrell take that thing apart, piece by piece, and screw by screw and clean it and it kept his mind from being overwhelmed with it all. The Lord didn't forget a thing in caring for these precious ones, even down to projects to keep them busy.

Then Lou's son came in with all of the firemen and said one of the neighbor ladies who had 5 children was missing. She had gone out to work in the night and evidently didn't see the water over the road and drove into it. They found her car but she was missing.

They made Lou's house the hub because Lou has the gift of hospitality and the true love of Yeshua. Her whole life belongs to Him and she opens her home for ministers to come and rest, or teach, or just pass through. I call her Mother Israel because she has a passion for Israel that began for her as a young girl. She has read everything she can find about Israel and the Jews and follows the news and tries to see how it all fits prophetically in the Word. Her whole heart and passion is for Yeshua, and the Holy Land and the Jews.

Since Lou had all the food for the ladies meeting that was supposed to be held there that day, we cancelled the meeting and prepared all of the sandwiches and drinks for the fireman and searchers. The men worked all day and there was mud on Lou's floor so thick from their muddy boots tracking in for refreshments and prayer. We were so busy we hardly had time to think about the mud or what was happening, and we had had about an hour of sleep.

The men would come and pray and sing hymns and weep for this lady to be found safe. It really touched my heart and I just watched how people pull together when there's a crisis. It was good to see the men at the heart of it all. Eventually we ran out of food for them and we couldn't get to town as the roads were flooded out.

Lou and I had bought some beans for the 2 of us to eat. There was 2 small cups of beans. I had measured them at the store, one cup for each of us. I decided to cook them that morning for Linda and Jerrel and some cornbread to give them some strength. I didn't even think there would be enough for me and Lou to eat with them so I fed them first. There wasn't much in the pan but I dished me and Lou up some beans when they were full. There was still some in the pan. Lou put some ketchup in hers and hadn't eaten any yet when one of the precious workers who had gone to Linda's house and sifted through the muddy water to try to save their belongings, came in tired, wet and muddy. I looked in the pan and it wasn't empty so I said, "do you want some beans?" and she said "yes please". Lou put her beans back in the pan thinking there wouldn't be enough. I said "Lou don't you believe the Lord is going to feed these people? Don't put your beans back, I pray in the name of Yeshua that these beans be blessed and multiplied." Well she still wouldn't eat any beans. I already ate mine and so did Linda and Jerrel, and we need to feed this hungry neighbor, so we did. Then others came and I kept dishing out beans and the pan just wasn't empty.

I never counted how many people we fed. We were so tired we just kept moving because if we stopped we'd fall asleep. I just know that for several hours I kept dishing out beans.

Then they found the ladies body. It was just awful, men and women cried and their hearts were just broken. We all prayed together and the men went to tell the family. The children said they didn't think they could live without a momma, because there was no one to take care of them. The daddy who refused to go to church or listen to his believing wife came to the Lord because of the love that was poured out by these awesome firemen who loved the Lord and had searched relentlessly for his wife. His wife's prayers had been answered; that he came to the Lord, but the cost was high. The man has since remarried and the children have a momma.

After that things started to slow down till about 9:00 pm. When Lou finally dished up a bowl of beans for herself and added ketchup and some neighbors came in. We said would you like some beans and they said yes and Lou put her beans back again. I scolded her about how those beans were never going to run out, but her giving heart just gave them right back in to the pan again. We fed the neighbors and after they left Lou finally got her bowl of beans. We actually put beans in a bowl and put them in the refrigerator and had lots of cornbread left over also. That cornbread was delicious, as one woman said it was better than a well known restaurant. So it wasn't left over because it wasn't good, people ate that cornbread also but we had leftovers. I have cooked the same amount of beans at home as an experiment and it barely fed me and my husband with nothing left over. I knew we had had a miracle I just wanted to know how big.

Now the Lord reminded me of the beans being multiplied. So I went to the store and bought a 25 lb. bag of beans and proclaimed them my 7 year tribulation beans. I said the Lord can multiply them to last with some left over.

So the week after that I went to our Sabbath meeting. I hadn't prepared to go as I was almost 2 hours away and only attended about once a month. However my friend Polly said she felt led to ask me to go. I could ride with them as they had room because one of their daughters wasn't able to go that day. So I hurried and drove the 45 minutes to their house so we could go the rest of the way.

At the meeting we always break bread and fellowship afterwards. It is called Oneg. I didn't have anything cooked to take with me, however the day before I had gotten some muffins from the wholesale store. They were chocolate with chocolate chips inside and they were big muffins. There were 12 in the pack, however I had given one to my husband and I had eaten one and I left one with Polly's daughter as it was her favorite. So there were only 9 left and there were about 40 people there that day including children. I wanted everyone to get some, so I sliced them like brownies. Another lady brought some whipped topping she had mixed with some strawberry crème of some kind. So everyone ate the "brownies" with that whipped topping on top. One of my friends ate 2 or 3 servings herself and I saw people returning to get seconds at the table. I was happy everyone got some.

After oneg I went to the kitchen to help clean up and put things away and the muffin container was completely FULL!!!! Polly looked and said she thought I had more than what I started out with. I was really excited about the way Yahweh was demonstrating His covering for the Child of Promise. I told the ladies there about the beans and the walk of promise and not seeking provision, leading to the abundant life Yeshua promised us.

That week I called a friend of mine to tell her the good news of the promise of abundance, and she was at the grocery store. I was telling her how the Lord was showing me about the Children of Promise and that the ones who were keeping His Sabbaths and Feasts would have nothing but abundance and the 100 fold blessing. I also told her of the miracles of the beans and the cupcakes. She listened and said "praise the Lord" as she was a Sabbath keeper also, and then we hung up.

She called me a few days later to tell me that the anointing of that blessing was transferred through the phone conversation and how she had been blessed. She was waiting for some steaks that were on sale for .96 a lb. The place was packed and the shelf was empty. The butcher told them it would be quite awhile before he could get some more cut so they would have to wait or come back. She was waiting and after we hung up she looked on the shelf and there was a large package of meat there. There were lots of people still standing there waiting, yet here was this package of meat on the shelf. She looked around and couldn't figure out how it had suddenly appeared. The butcher wasn't done yet. So she picked it up and left. When she got home she koshered it and split it into 3 packages. Those 3 packages yielded huge meals with leftovers. She said she knew it was the message I had told her on the phone that had brought the miracle. This blessing is transferable to the trusting obedient servant of the Lord. That is why I must prophesy it to you, so you may enter in and receive the 100 fold blessing also.

My husband and I had also gone to an Erev Shabbat dinner (Sabbath eve dinner done on Friday evening) at some friend's house. She had made a huge pot of mashed potatoes. As everyone came in she forgot the burner was still on and she scorched them. She was really upset because her children had wanted mashed potatoes and she had promised them to make them. Now they were brown and smelled scorched. We went outside to blow the shofar for the Sabbath and I remembered the beans. I asked Yahweh to take the smell and taste of smoke from the potatoes and let them be good. We went back in and tasted them and they were delicious. Anyone who knows about scorched potatoes knows that you can't get that taste out. Sometimes if you catch it when they first start to scorch and take only the top layer off and put them in a new pan, rarely you can save them.

I was seeing how Yeshua was teaching me to walk in the promise and stop seeking provision. He came to give us life and more abundant life not just a meager existence here on earth. We are the children of The Most High. It rains on the just and the unjust for provision but abundance is the promise to the children.

Yeshua's sinless life as high priest grants us entry into the Kingdom which has no lack. In Hebrews 4: 15-16 it says that we have a great high priest who won't empathize with our weakness because He was sinless. Now we may come boldly to the throne of grace so that we can receive mercy and find grace in time of need.

We have never been in a greater time of need than now. The world is closer to the tribulation than I have ever seen. The whole internet is buzzing with confirmations and revelations of prophecy being fulfilled daily that birth the coming of the end, and Messiah's coming.

When we come to the greatest hour of needing grace and mercy we need to have an open door to the throne of Yahweh and His mercy and grace. That door comes through the Messiah and His opening that door to the Sabbath and so we may enter into the obedience and trust in Him and have entrance as a Child of Promise.

Notice that in James Nesbitts painting of the Lion of Judah on the Wailing Wall, the Lion of Judah is holding the key of David. The Lion of Judah holds the keys of David and has roared so “weep not”. I should have read the weep not part before Yeshua took me on that trip to Jerusalem. I never wept so hard for the fear of judgment on the land and peoples of the earth. I will never be the same again and it is very sobering to have seen the things that will be.

In light of all that Yahweh had shown me about His covering over us and abundance, I repented before the Lord for my doubt and insecurity, and from that moment I have not worried about the end time. I have stopped asking for provision from the Lord. That is just enough to get by. That is for the sons of flesh. The sons of promise walk in abundance. I’m not talking about a prosperity message here. That has been run into the ground until it makes me run away every time I hear some preacher teaching on getting a blessing by giving. The blessings come because of obedience to the laws set up in the universe by Yahweh. He says if you do this, then I’ll give you this, over and over again in the word.

When I came home from visiting the Children of Promise in the wilderness, the place the Lord prepared for me to be safe and nurtured in the end of days before I was even born, Yahweh directed me to this parable and It finally came clear and I understood it after reading it many, many times before.

Matthew 13:24 about the parable of the seeds says “But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.”

Yahweh showed me that the bride who seeks provision only receives 30 or 60 fold these are the sons of flesh. Remember the message of the congregation leader that the sons of the flesh always have troubles. Remember that Revelation 3 says we can avoid these troubles by persevering in obedience. The 30 and 60 folders are still sons, but of flesh or provision not promise. But the children of promise receive the 100 fold blessings of abundance. They hear the word with a teachable heart, understand it, and then obey. Obedience produces the fruit of abundance. You choose provision or promise. It says only “some” walk on this fruit level.

Matthew 13:3-23 Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. 6 But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. 8 But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9 He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" 10 And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?" 11 He answered and said to them, "Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12 For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 13 Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14 And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says: 'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand, And seeing you will see and not perceive; 15 For the hearts of this people have grown dull. Their ears are hard of hearing, And their eyes they have closed, Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn, So that I should heal them.' 16 "But blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear; 17 for assuredly, I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it. 18 "Therefore hear the parable of the sower: 19 When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside. 20 But he who received the seed on stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; 21 yet he has no root in himself, but endures only for a while. For when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22 Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23 But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

They each heard the word and bore and produced fruit. But let's look at why the different fruit levels.

The level 30 fold blessing : The number 30 in Hebrew is lamed. The name of Judas = 30 in Hebrew. He also sold Yeshua for 30 pieces of silver which is the price of a slave. In ancient Hebrew, the letters are also numbers (the name of the anti-messiah is 666) the names liar and lie come up for the number 30 in the Bible. Judas was obviously one of the disciples of Yeshua, however he was greedy and his focus was on the purse. He was a slave to money and would deceive to achieve it. Many of today's leader's eyes are on the purse and are slaves to money. They want to sell they're wares like Judas wanted to sell the Lord's anointing oil for his burial instead of lavish it on Yeshua. All he could see is a year's wages being poured over the Lord's head and that is all the so called men of Yahweh are seeing is the year's wages. They cannot see because they have chosen to close they're eyes lest they see and understand the truth.

This is the spirit without Torah. Judas knew Yeshua was Mashiac but did not follow Torah, or he could not have betrayed Yeshua or accepted a bribe.

1Ti 6:10 -

For the love of money is a root of all the evils; because of this craving, some people have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves to the heart with many pains.

Heb 13:5 -

Keep your lives free from the love of money; and be satisfied with what you have; for God himself has said, "I will never fail you or abandon you."

If your focus is on money you will be a slave, and that is what the prosperity message focuses on. If you're looking for prosperity you will only receive 30 fold blessing.

Exodus 36:15 thirty cubits describes the length of the curtains in the Tabernacle of Moses. The curtains are the covering of God over the tabernacle and signify God's rulership and covering over the true temple, which is the bride.

The Hebrew letter for 30 is Lamed which is literally the staff, which is authority, leadership, or rulership.

So these ones are the bride and they have the authority and are under the covering of Adonai but have deception and greed still in operation in their spirit due to the lack of Torah.

The 60 fold blessing is the Hebrew letter Samek which is to uphold, help or "support". Samek is the most active letter in the word "foundation" as in Ezra 6:3 and also is the measurement of threescore cubits. It is the most active person in the Kingdom also. Interestingly number 60 is the number that is described as the age of a widow who can be “supported”.

1Timothy 5:9-10

Let a widow be enrolled on the list of widows only if she is more than sixty years old, was faithful to her husband, and is known for her good deeds - as one who has reared her children well, showed hospitality, washed the feet of God's people, helped those in trouble, and engaged in all kinds of good work.

So the 60 fold blessing for the bride who has actively been a servant of Yahweh, faithful to Him as her husband, known for her good deeds, and shown hospitality. She is a humble servant of Yahweh as she has washed the feet of His people. She has helped anyone in trouble and abounds in good works. Because of this Yahweh will multiply her blessings in upholding her (samek=60), helping her, and supporting her. This is the level of provision for the bride who has been faithful to do the work. This is a Martha who is always working for the Lord but has failed to sit at His feet and adore Him. This is truth without the spirit or Torah without Yeshua, the spirit of Prophecy.

James 1:27

Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

This is Torah and is pure and undefiled religion and it brings the blessing of 60 fold return but lacks the fullness of the spirit.

In ancient Hebrew 60 is the picture of a pillar upholding three beams. Being upright and carrying the load or self supporting. This person doesn't ask for anything, (does not know how to receive due to the pride of self supporting) just works hard to get what they need and Yahweh blesses them 60 fold. The words that come up with this same ancient Hebrew number are: tried vessel, treasure, basket, yoke, excellence, and pride. This person has been a tried vessel, a treasure, a basket full because of the yoke of excellence. But their downfall is the yoke of pride in all of the work they have done, they are “known for their good deeds”. When men see our giving and they praise us, we lose part of our reward thus the 60 fold return. We are to give in secret and pray in a closet that our reward will come from the Abba, which brings the abundance and the 100 fold blessing.

Now we will look at the number 100 which in Hebrew is the kaph. Psalms 2:6 says “I myself have installed my King in Tzion, my holy mountain". In ancient Hebrew the kaph symbolizes the palm of the hand. Isaiah 49:15-16 says:

49:15

Can a woman forget her child at the breast, not show pity on the child from her womb? Even if these were to forget, I would not forget you.

49:16

I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are always before me."

The Hebrew words in the Bible that have the same value as 100 are: My king, my servant David, King of Israel, And the Lord shall be King, The Lord will judge, above, upon, palm of hand, right hand, a wise mans heart, wise hearted, calm, all of man, beauty, FEAST OF DEDICATION, kind, deceiver, strife, contention, yoke, tax or tribute.

This is the child of promise whose eyes are on the King only. They will love him as King and judge. They are engraved in the palm of His hand and under the authority of the one at His right hand, Yeshua. This is truth with the spirit, as are the true worshipers.

Joh 4:23 - Show Context

But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him.

Revelation 19:10 says "I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Yeshua. Worship God! For the testimony of Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy."

The children of promise have a wise mans heart, or the heart of David, and walk in Shalom and beauty. The Child of Promise has been freed of the deceiver and all of his strife and contention. They recognize the lies that they have inherited from religion and instead embrace the truth of Torah. The children of promise worship Yahweh in Spirit and in Truth as the true worshipper. They walk in the spirit of prophecy because Yeshua is the spirit of Prophecy. And they walk in Torah because it is the truth and the marriage contract and the instruction booklet for us to follow to pass safely through this world and into His arms. The true worshippers will worship Him in spirit and in truth. He is the Word of truth and He is the Spirit. The child of promise doesn't have they're eyes on the money or the provision but their eyes are on the Promise, our King of Kings, and Lord of Lords Yeshua ha Mashiach. This is the Child of Promise, the one who has the abundant life Yeshua promised. They walk in the 100 fold blessing that all the other trusting obedient children of promise had throughout the Bible, from Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob (Israel), David and many others.

Interestingly, in chapter one when the community leader gave the message about whether we would have troubles or walk as sons of promise, he gave this illustration which fits perfectly into what Yahweh revealed to me about this parable of 30, 60, and 100 fold blessings. Here is a recap of those words:

“The speaker then drew a water vessel and said the only way to get a breakthrough to the next level is to ‘drink’ (remember Yeshua told me to DRINK in the message) more of the water. Of course water is the word of God. The speaker said ‘if you only take one drink and then go on a journey, troubles will come because you don’t have enough water (of the Word).’ He drew the vessel about one third full (30 fold). So he said ‘take another drink until you are completely full (60 fold) and go on a journey and you will have troubles because you’ll run out of water’ (Torah truth without the spirit). Then he drew the vessel running over and said ‘if you’ll wait on the Lord until you are running over (in the spirit) with the word (in truth), and then go on a journey you will run over on everyone around you. This brings cleansing for you and everyone around you. Then the troubles of life cannot come to afflict you as you are walking in the fullness of the son of promise and His commands (100 fold). You have waited upon Him and ‘sought His face’ until you are completely full and running over with the full truth of the Word and not the deceptions of man.

This is the fullness spoken of in John 1:16-17:

16 We have all received from his fullness, yes, grace upon grace. 17 For the Torah was given through Moshe; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah.

And in Ephesians 4:11-13 And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, 13 till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of THE FULLNESS of Christ;

Romans 11:25 For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until THE FULLNESS of the Gentiles has come in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved,

Can you now see that we are the children of Promise who keep the commands and feasts of Yahweh, trust in Mashiac, and walk in the spirit?

Galatians 3:29

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 4:28

Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

CHAPTER 5 THE SPIRIT AND THE TRUTH

2Th 2:13 -

But we have to keep thanking God for you always, brothers whom the Lord loves, because God chose you as firstfruits for deliverance by giving you the holiness that has its origin in the Spirit and the faithfulness that has its origin in the truth.

Holiness comes from walking in the spirit of prophecy and faithfulness to the truth comes from being delivered from the lies and the blindness to the truth of the Torah.

Joh 4:23 -

But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him.

The true worshippers will worship the Father in the spirit of prophecy (Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy) and the truth of the Word (Yeshua is the Word). Revelation 19:10...

Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Matt 7:22-23

"Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.'"

Here we see the spirit in operation with out the truth, they are lawless, or without Torah. He cannot know us unless we enter into His bridal chamber of the Sabbaths and keep His Torah or truths. We also must not stand in the place of the Pharisees and see only Torah, we must walk in spirit and in truth and know our Mashiac. For like the Pharisees you walk in pride and the traditions of men. For the spirit brings life, His testimony is the spirit of prophecy.

John 1:1-4

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was with God in the beginning. 3 All things came to be through him, and without him nothing made had being. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of mankind.

So if we are walking in Yeshua, we are in Torah, for He is The Word, and it was the spirit of Yeshua and prophecy that brought into being everything that was made, but it was Torah that established or made it.

The Abba is seeking people with a heart to worship Him in the spirit and truth that Yeshua operated in. The spirit of Yeshua that taught the Torah, kept the Torah, and obeyed and kept the Sabbaths of Yahweh.

Joh 4:24 -

God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

It doesn't say worship Him in just spirit or just truth, both are required for proper worship.

The 100 also means the election, Children of promise, maturity, full count, Holiness, and growth cycles. It is also related to the Feast of Dedication. I have always believed this feast is about this end time generation and it is evidently about the bride, or the children of promise. Hanukah is about the Temple of Yahweh being desecrated by unclean things and abandoned and ruled by pagans. The people of God decide that they are tired of the filth in the temple and being governed by, and oppressed by the enemy. So they decide to fight for the right to worship Yahweh and keep His feasts again even if it seemed too late (the feast of Tabernacles had already passed). So it only took a few men but they began to fight an enemy much greater in number than they were, and they completely defeated them. Then the people of Yahweh, (the Maccabees), went into the temple of Adonai and saw the filth that had been left there by the enemy. They cleansed Yahweh's house and consecrated the altars once more from the pagan sacrifices and idols. However they only found enough consecrated oil for the lamp stand for one day and it takes 7 days to prepare the oil. They went ahead and lit the lamp stand (menorah) anyways, even though it seemed there wasn't enough oil to burn for the full feast, miraculously, the oil burned for 8 days, and the people of the Lord were restored to Yahweh and the freedom to worship their King.

Notice when they kept the Sabbath of Yahweh that, miracles, abundance, refreshing, restoration, and the presence of Yahweh were released?????

It is never too late to start keeping the Feasts or Sabbaths of Yahweh. The children of promise were late keeping Sukkot as that feast was in the fall, but they did it anyway. Yahweh honored it by sending the miracle of Light. Yeshua is the light of the world and he will come when the people begin to keep the Sabbaths of Yahweh once again. Yes we are late in seeing the truth but it's never too late to recognize truth and act on it.

I found it very interesting that the number 100 gets its very foundation in some of the original children of promise. It took Noah 100 years to build the ark, and there were 8 people on board. Eight is new beginnings like the 8 days the oil burned for Hanukah.

Abraham also had the number 100 sealed in his covenant with Yahweh. It is also evidenced through the generations that followed him that it was passed down to the sons of promise who came forth from him.

Abraham was promised that his seed would be many in the earth just because He believed Yahweh and trusted Him. That seed came as Isaac the child of promise given to him at 100 YEARS OLD. The covenant Yahweh made was with Isaac and it was an everlasting covenant. Even though Abraham was only given one son he still believed Yahweh to multiply his seed and complete the promise. Abraham was one of the wealthiest men ever known. It wasn't how many children Adonai gave him that made him rich. It was the trust in the Promise. Isaac was the Child of Promise and he inherited the seed of that promise to pass down for generations to come, and multiply in the earth. Isaac the child of promise had no lack as he inherited all that Abraham had been given, before he was even born. His father Abraham came out of a pagan nation and followed Yahweh out of total obedience. He was a friend of God and walked with him side by side. Because of his obedience he was richly blessed in all things. He walked in the 100 fold blessing.

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am Almighty God; walk before Me and be blameless. 2 And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly." 3 Then Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying:

4 "As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. 5 No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you a father of many nations. 6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.

7 And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you.

Abraham received his promised Isaac at 100 years old. He began the hundredfold blessing to be passed down to the children of promise as an everlasting covenant to all generations. That includes us!!!!!!!

He didn't look at his "one" son of promise and wonder where the many nations would come from. He looked to the promise written in the stars in the sky about Yeshua, the son of promise who would come, and he believed Yahweh, and it brought righteousness and blessing to him and his many descendants. He was even willing to give the promise back to Yahweh when he was asked to sacrifice Isaac, he trusted Yahweh to fulfill the covenant, no matter what. The test of unfailing obedience was passed by our father of promise and Yahweh sealed the covenant with the blood of a lamb.

Galatians 3:29

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Like Yeshua fed the multitude with the 5 loaves and 2 fish in Matthew 14:15 the number or amount of things you possess is not the measure of abundance that you receive. You must trust and walk in the place of promise fully knowing that Yahweh cannot lie and He has promised. Therefore it is sealed in the universe to be fact.

Genesis 26:12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and the Lord blessed him.

The hundredfold blessing is passed down to Isaac as it is the mark of a child of promise and the everlasting covenant of Yahweh with Abraham.

Galatians 4:28

Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

Jacob (Ya'akov) was a child of promise also. The son of Isaac was promised his seed would produce more than the dust of the earth. It was from him that the 12 tribes of Israel came forth.

When the famine came to the earth, Jacob was taken to Egypt by his son Joseph, who was thought to be dead. However the plan of Yahweh had actually placed Joseph in Egypt to save the seed of Abraham during a famine. A prophecy was given through a dream that the King had, and Joseph (Yosef) the son of Jacob (Ya'acov) was able by the spirit of Yahweh to interpret the dream. He was then placed in authority over the land of Egypt because everything he touched was blessed; he was a child of promise. Even in prison and as a slave he was made the head over everything. It was evident the hand of Yahweh rested on him. He put forth a plan to store up food before the famine arrived and Pharaoh put him in charge over the whole nation and freed him from prison and slavery.

It is also not your position that makes you a child of promise. You don't have to be the King or the president or someone important. Even in prison or as a slave you will be blessed if you trust Him and have entered into the Torah in obedience. You will also still be promoted to the place He has prepared for you and your family. The word says that you shall be saved, and your house, which means your obedience, will bring salvation to your family in the days of testing. Like Joseph, what he stored up out of obedience was enough for his whole family to be saved from famine.

The blessing is transferable; Abraham to Isaac, Isaac to Jacob, Jacob to Joseph, and Joseph to his family. Remember the meat at the store that was blessed because of the message given over the phone. Remember the widow who was obedient to the prophesy given by Elijah, and she gave him her last morsel because she believed the promise, that it would never run out. Remember how all the Children of Promise passed the blessings to their children before they died in the form of a prophetic blessing. So it is transferable by you prophesying it. Remember that Yahweh makes the plans before you're even born of how to supply all your needs according to His riches in glory, all you have to do is trust and obey.

Eventually in the long famine, Yosefs (Josephs) family came to purchase the only food left around. Money cannot buy food that doesn't exist. Had Yosef not interpreted the dream and then implemented the gift in him of the child of promise, no one could have purchased food.

Yosef (Joseph) was reunited with his family and not only was Ya'acov (Jacob) kept from hunger but also received his son whom he thought was dead back to life, so that the 12 tribes of Israel were complete. This was to preserve and establish Israel and the many nations that Yahweh promised to Abraham. Abraham trusted Yahweh, so the promise came down through the generations.

A whole nation, and nations were saved by a dream interpretation. Yosef protected Yeshua because of a warning dream to flee the country from Herod who wanted to kill the Messiah. Families will be protected and restored through the promise by those that are walking in the spirit of prophecy and obedience to the truth of the word in the end days.

Yosef brought his family to live in the land of Egypt with him. During the famine the Egyptians had to give all their money the first year, and all their animals the second year, and their homes the third year, and finally they had to sell themselves the fourth year just to have food to eat.

While the Egyptians lost it all, Ya'akov (Jacob) and his family bought land, had cattle, sheep, and great abundance of all things. They were under the 100 fold blessing of the children of promise no matter where they lived or the conditions surrounding them. And many years before the famine came, Yahweh already had a plan in place to send Yosef to Egypt, which preserved the entire nation of Israel. Just like many years ago the Lord made a plan to send Yeshua into Egypt which again preserved the nation of Israel. Yahweh has a plan for this day we live in and has "prepared a place for us" of safety and comfort and promise in the promised land of the spirit, His Sabbaths. It might look like we're in Egypt in the natural, but if we are walking in the promise it is a place of safety.

It looked as if Yosef was a goner and that he would never see the promise fulfilled in him. He was at the very bottom, his brothers had betrayed him, sold him, and abandoned him. Yet it was all in Yahweh's plan to save the nation of Israel, for He will never leave us or abandon us. He knows how to position us and knows what we need before we even ask. He will bless us above anything we can ask or think of. He knows the beginning from the end and cares for His children. And as Joseph walked in the spirit and truth and brought salvation and provision to 2 nations in time of famine, so shall we be used in the end times if we worship in spirit and in truth.

2Peter 1:2-11 says " Grace to you and shalom be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Yeshua our Lord, 3 seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; 4 whereby he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; 7 and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. 9 For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11 For thus will be richly supplied to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah. "

When we understand the power and the nature of Yeshua and that through the knowledge of Him and His great promises He has granted us everything we need that pertains to life. We will not have lack in anything, as He has granted us HIS PRECIOUS GREAT PROMISES, so that through these we can share in the divine nature in Him to walk in His attributes of diligence, moral excellence, self control, patience and love. Love for others is the evidence of the fullness in operation, so like Yeshua we can walk and be moved with compassion. So by being a Child of Promise we can be Holy as He is Holy, when we put on Yeshua, we walk as He walked and do what He did. We will also be supplied RICHLY THE ENTRANCE INTO THE ETERNAL KINGDOM OF OUR LORD AND SAVIOR. There is a Heavenly storehouse in His presence that multiplies the bread and the fish or whatever we, or others, have or need on this earth. So we that are of the Children of Promise best be ready to feed the 10,000 because “greater things shall you do” Yeshua said because I go to the Father.

Chapter 6

HEALING IN THE SABBATH

For 13 1/2 years I suffered with many chronic pain disorders. The last neurologist I saw said I had Multiple Sclerosis. However the test to confirm that never was done because my husband did not want it diagnosed. He said it made no difference what I had, putting a name on it wouldn't make it any better. In fact some people were being denied insurance that had this diagnosis. The things that I had been diagnosed with were:

RSD (reflex sympathetic dystrophy)

Hip and lower back pain

Duodenal Ulcer, Interstitial Cystitis and Spastic Colon

Chronic Fatigue & Fibromyalgia

Foot & Sternum Pain

Arthritis (of the spine)

Muscle atrophy

TMJ, Migraines & Trigeminal Neuralgia

Poor eyesight and double vision

Food Allergies and Environmental Illness

Rosacea & Acne

Heart Problems (mitral valve prolapse)

Everything hurt me. Walking on concrete was like walking on nails.

Wearing shoes was so painful, wearing clothes was painful, lying down was excruciating, standing up was worse, sitting down was unbearable.

Walking with a cane hurt my hand and arm so bad and riding in a wheelchair was worse as it made my hips and back and legs hurt. I could not walk for longer than 5 minutes and standing still was like standing on a bed of nails. Looking down hurt my neck which resulted in inability to read, sew, or play my guitar. Even holding a piece of paper for more than 5 minutes was just excruciating for me. All I could do is lie on an egg crate mattress and watch Christian television and wait for the day someone, ANYONE would have a word of healing for me.

I had two of the most painful neurological disorders and the third I probably had was Multiple Sclerosis along with ten other serious chronic pain disorders. My husband carried me many times when I couldn't go another step. He stood beside me and cared for me through it all! He bought expensive special shoes and orthotics trying to help me. He took me to healing crusades and prayed for me again and again. He learned to rub my feet to bring circulation back to them. Whatever the need be, he was there to take care of me!

It was difficult to accept help from anyone as I didn't want to be dependant upon anyone. I was stubborn and even at times didn't want my husbands help. I realized through this ordeal that Renalee needed to die to a lot of pride and stubbornness. The enemy meant all of this for the bad, but Adonai used it for His good. It was to bring me to a place that I could find truth. I realize now that sin and disobedience brings sickness into our lives. It isn't a very popular thing to say as people including myself don't want to hear it. We were healed by Yeshua Jesus stripes 2,000 years ago. But if we don't repent of our sins or we continue to walk in disobedience it brings sickness. Look at how many times disobedience brought plagues on the children of Israel and only the repentance and intervention in prayer of Moses that stopped the plagues. It is Adonai's will that we all prosper and be in good health but only as our soul prospers. We must choose life and the blessing or death and the curse as it is clearly laid out in Deuteronomy 27 and 28. It says if you choose life by obeying all of His instructions that Adonai your God will raise you up high above all the nations on earth and all blessings will be yours in abundance. Blessings on everything you do and everywhere you go and all the fruit of your body, your land, your livestock, and your animals. You truly must read chapter 28 to see all of the wonderful blessings Adonai has for you.

However if you choose death and the curse by walking in disobedience, the curses in chapter 27 are very clear. Even dishonoring your Father and Mother can bring the curse of a very short life upon you. It says that a curse will come on anyone who does not confirm the words of Torah by putting them into practice. (v.26)

Unfortunately today we accept sickness without questioning where we may have opened the door. Yeshua has paid for our sins and sicknesses and delivered us from all spirits of infirmity by the giving of Himself to pay for our sins. But unless we repent, which is to turn away from sin and cry out to Yahweh for forgiveness in the name of His son Yeshua, we are not walking in the provision of healing and salvation He came to bring us. We'll fight off sin and trust Yeshua for our salvation, but we welcome sickness in the door the minute it shows up. We immediately confess that we are sick or in pain. Just like the spies that went into the land, we give a bad report and end up wandering in the desert of transgression and infirmity for 40 years. Where are the Joshua's that proclaim a good report? The ones who joyfully proclaim: "Yes there are giants in the land, but our Mighty God can destroy them. He will fight the battle for us". We must get our confession and thinking right. Those giants of sickness and sin look huge to our eyes when we look at them with worldly vision. But when we realize that Yahweh's footstool is the Earth and the universe is His tent, we catch the vision of truth and those giants begin to pale in stature, to our awesome Mighty God. Choose life and the blessing through our salvation, Yeshua (Yah saves). We must go to Him and cast our cares on Him repent of our sins and walk in obedience to Him. In the beginning was the word and that word was Yeshua, He is Torah so to obey Him we must obey Torah (first 5 books of the Bible). He said if we love Him we will keep His commandments. They are His commands because He is The Word. We must also believe in our Messiah and that through Him we are saved. We must also in the same measure believe we are healed. Some people believe in their salvation but can't believe for healing, and they are one in the same, bought and paid for by His blood. Trust me when you get free from all sins of the past and present, you won't have to struggle with faith in Him. The peace (shalom) that passes all understanding will keep your hearts and mind. You will know the truth and the truth will set you free. All of the cares that choke out the truth of the Word will be cast upon Him because you know that He cares for you. Freedom from captivity brings you to a place of trust that casts out all doubts, and fear is cast out by His perfect love.

Trust me I had to fight for my healing because it had taken up residence in me. I let it in the door, confessed it daily, and believed in it. The pain was real to me, even more real than the truth I thought I knew.

I served the Lord the best I could. I still prayed almost everyday. When I was stuck in bed I'd tell the adversary he'd be sorry for putting me there because I was going to lay there and pray. Intercession went forth but not repentance. I didn't believe that I had done this to myself, I blamed it on the adversary. I couldn't understand why the Lord didn't heal me. I didn't realize that I myself opened the door to this sickness by disobedience and a bad report and putting my faith in the word curses that the doctors spoke over me. I did believe Yeshua could heal me, the problem was I believed in the indoctrination I had been taught, that when it was His will, I would be healed. The truth was, it WAS His will, that is why He died for me and took stripes on His back. It was up to me to line up with the word and choose life.

One day while lying on the couch, as usual, I saw a Benny Hinn show where his wife said her Dad was supposed to die in 1 month with cancer. Someone told him about receiving healing by taking communion, so he began to take it everyday and he was healed! I'm sure a pastor wouldn't take communion without repenting first because they go hand in hand.

I said to myself, "I can do that". But I asked the Lord if it would be a ritual for me to do that everyday. He spoke to me and said, "as long as there is a revelation happening each time I took it, it would not be a ritual." So each day it was fresh to me. A new way to recognize Yeshua as Lord, as peace, as savior, as healer, as provider, and it brought repentance as I knew not to take the body and the blood unworthily. Studying I found that He said as oft as you do it, do it in remembrance of me. I would pray to Yeshua "I remember Lord that you died for me and took my sins on yourself. I repent and recognize that all have sinned and come short of the glory. I recognize who you are and what you've done for me and I thank you."

Then I found a real truth in that I was already healed by His stripes. So I would claim my healing and proclaim that my God cannot lie and He says, I AM HEALED as I held up the cup of communion up to Adonai.

I began to feel a need for deeper repentance, so I repented on my face before Adonai everyday. It was a true sacrifice of praise as it was so painful to lie there in the floor. Many times I would put pillows on the floor and lie before Him and repent for even my parents and grandparents sins. As the Word says that even to the third and fourth generation are the sins of the father passed down to the children. At one point Adonai told me I had more faith in the sickness than in Him. I cried out in repentance to Him and prayed for His mercy and forgiveness realizing this was idolatry, as I was putting more faith in sickness than Yeshua. Looking back now I see that my confession of pain and sickness was reality to me instead of Adonai's healing power.

After about 3 months of communion and repentance, I had a dream. I DREAMED that Benny Hinn came into a gymnasium where I and my husband and daughter were. Now Benny only represented healing in this dream, as that is his ministry. It was not Benny Hinn in the dream I believe it was the Holy Spirit.

I was going over to tell him what was wrong with me and was trying to get there before anyone else as I was so desperate to be healed. Before I even got there he pointed at me and a white light like lightening came out of his hand and hit me in the forehead. I fell in the floor and then began to fly and laugh and praise the Lord around the room above all the people's heads. When I came back to stand on the floor, Benny then prophesied that I would have a healing ministry and so would my daughter. When I woke up the next morning, to my amazement, I was healed of all the pain!!!! There was no pain in my body! What a glorious day. It had been many years since I didn't know pain at all times. I could pick up a 40 lb bag of dog food. I could hold my grandchildren, vacuum, hike, sit for hours, travel, and eat ice cream and pizza. Here in a dream, of all places, I had gotten the new body I had, for so many years, prayed for. My husband's prayers were answered along with all of my family and friends.

It was sooooo wonderful to be free!!!!!! I wanted to go to the doctor and get the two, 12 inch thick medical charts that had been split twice so he could carry them, to have their final entry!!! A miracle had happened!!! I wanted it written in black and white to glorify my Yeshua. My doctor is a powerful man of God so I knew he would rejoice with me.

I was driving down the road thinking about my testimony and how I had began by taking communion and repenting and then I had the dream..... I was interrupted by Yeshua's voice that was so loud and frightening I slammed on my brakes and almost stopped my car as I drove around this huge curve. He said "No, your healing began when you began to keep The Sabbath. You kept my covenant so I honored your covenant of communion." I began to weep and praise the Lord as the whole thing became evident to me. All the pieces began to come together and at last I could understand all the things that had happened in my life throughout the years.

A few months before the truth of repentance and the revelation of communion had been shown to me, I had felt so convicted about keeping the Sabbath according to Isaiah 58:13-14. It says that as we hold back our foot on the Sabbath (Saturday) from pursuing our own interests on His Holy day; if we call Shabbat (Sabbath) a delight, Adonai's holy day worth honoring; and then honor it by not doing our usual things or pursuing our own interests or even talking about them. Then we will find delight in the Lord. And he will make us ride on the heights and feed us with our heritage from Jacob (Ya'akov) for Yahweh's mouth has said it.

Well God can't lie! We closed our Saturday concession business to honor His word. It was very hard on us financially as we were already having difficulties economically. The manufacturing recession hit us hard with plant closure in our town and my husband's job was suddenly gone. There weren't any others out there to be found either. So it wasn't an easy decision, it cost us something. But even Yeshua had to pay the price and we all have to count the cost in some way or other. We had to eventually declare bankruptcy with many others in our little town. We were financially bankrupt but spiritually we were blessed, as we had found the truth of obedience and the blessing of resting and meeting with Yahweh on the day He had set apart to be with us.

The Lord declared his rest of Shabbat (Sabbath) from the day of creation. He confirms it through the word (Torah) to keep His covenant forever.

And when we began keeping this covenant out of Love for our Abba I could then partake of the covenant of healing brought by Yeshua Jesus stripes. John 14:21 Yeshua Jesus says "whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me, and the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him." He truly began to reveal himself to us and showed us the path of healing and restoration because of entering into His covenant with Him and choosing life.

Isaiah 58 says that as we hold back our foot on the Sabbath Then we will find delight in the Lord. And he will make us ride on the heights and feed us with our heritage from Jacob (Ya'akov) for Adonai's (Yahweh's) mouth has said it. Remember the blessing in Deuteronomy 28 that said:

1 "If you listen closely to what ADONAI your God says, observing and obeying all his mitzvot which I am giving you today, ADONAI your God will raise you high above all the nations on earth; 2 and all the following blessings will be yours in abundance -if you will do what ADONAI your God says: 3 "A blessing on you in the city, and a blessing on you in the countryside. 4 "A blessing on the fruit of your body, the fruit of your land and the fruit of your livestock - the young of your cattle and flocks. 5 "A blessing on your grain-basket and kneading-bowl. 6 "A blessing on you when you go out, and a blessing on you when you come in. 7 "ADONAI will cause your enemies attacking you to be defeated before you; they will advance on you one way and flee before you seven ways. 8 "ADONAI will order a blessing to be with you in your barns and in everything you undertake; he will bless you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you.

9 "ADONAI will establish you as a people separated out for himself, as he has sworn to you - if you will observe the mitzvot of ADONAI your God and follow his ways. 10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that ADONAI's name, his presence, is with you; so that they will be afraid of you.

11 "ADONAI will give you great abundance of good things - of the fruit of your body, the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your land in the land ADONAI swore to your ancestors to give you. 12 ADONAI will open for you his good treasure, the sky, to give your land its rain at the right seasons and to bless everything you undertake. You will lend to many nations and not borrow; 13 ADONAI will make you the head and not the tail; and you will be only above, never below - if you will listen to, observe and obey the mitzvot of ADONAI your God 14 and not turn away from any of the words I am ordering you today, neither to the right nor to the left, to follow after other gods and serve them.

Keeping the Sabbath of the Yahweh makes us “ride on the heights of the land” in Isaiah 58 and in Deuteronomy 28 it says “ADONAI your God will raise you high above all the nations on earth.” That is why in the dream I rose above everyone in the room and flew with great shalom and joy. Rising above all sickness and disease and casting down all fear and sin and doubt. There was now a blessing on the fruit of my body. I was now bearing the fruit of Yeshua’s redemption and healing and wholeness through life and the blessing of keeping His instructions to enter into the Holy day of Yahweh.

Well I did ride on the heights. In my dream I flew. And when I awoke I was healed. I did delight in the Lord and in Yeshua my healer. Praise the Lord!!!! I get excited again and again as I can once again enjoy life free of pain and eat the foods I couldn't eat for many years. No pizza or ice cream for 10 years was a hard sentence for me. But now because of His great love and mercy I am free. I glorify the one who deserves all of the Glory, Yeshua ha Mashiach my King (Jesus the messiah). Hallelujah!

There was another confirmation of my healing being due to keeping the Sabbath of Yahweh. In fact the words the Lord spoke to me on the road to the doctors office, made clear the words given to me 20 years before in a visitation I received at a camp meeting held at Ruth Heflin’s missionary camp in Virginia.

I had been taken to heaven in the spirit during worship and at that time I was told by Yeshua that I would take the message of HIS REST to the nations. So now it all became clear. His rest is the Sabbath, I thought it was some kind of prayer time. I couldn’t understand it. Even though I read Hebrews over and over again about ‘entering into His rest that still remains for us today, I still couldn’t get it.’ It also said to ‘fear lest you not enter into it’. I just didn’t understand that it was talking about the Sabbath rest, as I was never taught about that in my church.

When I found the truth of His Sabbath I found delighting in His day brings healing. If you notice in the gospels that Yeshua Jesus healed on the Sabbath repeatedly. He healed everyday but made it a point to show that in the Sabbath is healing. It is Yahweh's covenant of rest since creation and it is our door to His full benefits. Why do you think the Jews are so blessed financially? By keeping the covenant of Shabbat they are blessed, but is the Sabbath only for the Jews? Here is the answer in Isaiah 56:

1 Here is what ADONAI says: "Observe justice, do what is right, for my salvation is close to coming, my righteousness to being revealed."

2 Happy is the person who does this, anyone who grasps it firmly, who keeps Shabbat and does not profane it, and keeps himself from doing any evil.

3 A foreigner joining ADONAI should not say, "ADONAI will separate me from his people"; likewise the eunuch should not say, "I am only a dried-up tree." 4 For here is what ADONAI says: "As for the eunuchs who keep my Sabbats, who choose what pleases me and hold fast to my covenant: 5 in my house, within my walls, I will give them power and a name greater than sons and daughters; I will give him an everlasting name that will not be cut off. 6 "And the foreigners who join themselves to ADONAI to serve him, to love the name of ADONAI, and to be his workers, all who keep Shabbat and do not profane it, and hold fast to my covenant, 7 I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples." 8 Adonai ELOHIM says, he who gathers Isra'el's exiles: "There are yet others I will gather, besides those gathered already."

And here is what it says in Exodus.

Ex 12:49 - One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

"So there remains a Sabbath keeping for the people of the Lord." Hebrews 4:9

Isaiah 11: 9 For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord As the waters cover the sea. 10 "And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse, Who shall stand as a banner to the people; For the Gentiles shall seek Him, And His resting place shall be glorious."

After my healing miracle Yeshua began to pour out His spirit on me to write music and I could actually play my guitar correctly after many years. I so desired to worship Yahweh when I was sick, that I would tune my guitar so low until the strings were very loose and easier to play. I couldn't play long and it was very painful, and not very pretty, but it was another one of my sacrifices of praise.

Now healing flows from the music Yeshua gives to me and people have been healed, delivered of fear, and set free from unclean spirits. I tell everyone that I don't have any talent or ability, I only have His presence through life and the blessing the fruit of His essence flows. Without His presence I honestly cannot do anything, including walking in full healing.

My ministry is obedience. I just do what I see Him do and sing what I hear Him sing. Yes I've heard Him sing, many of my songs I heard in a dream. I am nothing more than a radio for Yeshua Jesus.

The pain was gone from my body but I still needed some restoration. The arthritis of the spine had shrunk me to 5'1 and I had a bump on the base of my neck that stuck out. We had a service at our community where we were called to the front for prayer and while being prayed for at the altar by my pastors I felt the Lord reach down and take a hold of each end of me and stretch me. My husband thought I was crazy when I said I just got stretched and I know I am taller now. But when we got home I made him measure me. I was 5' 2 1/4" inches. Since I was 15 years old my height was 5' 1 3/4" tall but I had shrunk to 5' 1" with the arthritis. Now miraculously the bump on my neck was gone and I was a full 1/2" taller than I ever had been in my life. And 1 and 1/4" inches taller than I was that morning. The Lord did such a complete work. I praise Him for full restoration of my body, soul, spirit, and mind.

I had another restoration that happened, but I'm not sure exactly when during this time. I knew since my healing, I was reading again and hadn't been able to do that very easily for years as I had double vision. I had forgotten about my eyes, but knew I was reading more of the word like I used to.

Then we went to Sedona for a vacation. There was a subdivision we always passed that had a sign out front that I never could read correctly. My husband always laughed when we passed by because I thought it said Mystic Chills as this is how it looked to me (mysticchills). This time when I saw the sign I could see it clearly and I said, "Mystic Hills"! I began to shout and praise Him and cry. He had restored my sight and healed my eyes and I didn't even realize it until that moment. Hallelujah!! Thanks be to my Mighty God who finishes all that He begins and He is able to complete every work that He begins. All we have to do is line up with Him. Remember what it says in Deuteronomy 28: 13 ADONAI will make you the head and not the tail; and you will be only above, never below - if you will listen to, observe and obey the mitzvot of ADONAI your God 14 and not turn away from any of the words I am ordering you today, neither to the right nor to the left, to follow after other gods and serve them.

All we have to do is listen, obey and don't turn to the right or the left and in so doing serve other gods or idols.

If all of this sounds really far out remember we have a really far out awesome God. He can do anything! The Bible isn't a book of just the past, but also the present and the future. Our God is the same yesterday, today and forever. The same miraculous, signs & wonders and giver of dreams He has always been.

His Sabbath began on the 7th day of the first week of the creation of this world and mankind. Yahweh said it was a perpetual commandment unto all generations, and that means forever. It has never changed because he never changes. It is the spirit of anti-messiah in the Word that tries to change the days and times and even seasons. Sabbath remains for us on the 7th day otherwise known as Saturday.

Our healing Savior rewards those who seek Him. God is alive and well today and He wants to heal you. Cry out to him in repentance and choose life and the blessing so you can ride on the heights of the land and bring forth the fruit of your body of Yeshua's redemption and healing and His mighty deliverance of setting the captives free. I am free, I pray you will be also.

Once you are free please remember that you must stand against the powerless enemy and keep him as the liar under your feet. We can be made sick by deception. The enemy may try to get you to take back the sickness or pain again. Remember Nahum 1:9 says "Affliction shall not rise up the second time." I raise up the cup of communion and declare "my God says I am healed and He can't lie, Satan is the liar and I am healed.

The enemy tried to steal my daughter when she was 16. She was taken in an ambulance to the hospital and had no vital signs so they were going to put her on life support. She was blue and her temperature was 80 something I was told it was that of a dead person. Also during my granddaughter's birth 4 years later her heart stopped and she was dead about 30 minutes. Both had died an untimely death. Both times, I cried out to Adonai and begged Him in the name of Yeshua to heal them, and nothing happened. They remained dead. But in both instances when I exposed the liar and the deceiver and commanded him to loose them and let them go, they came back to life. Both were fully restored with no damage to brains or organs. Don't let the enemy deceive you into accepting sickness or even death especially if you are walking in Yahweh's commandments. Be sure to repent of your sins known and unknown and then take authority over the enemy and command Him to leave by the authority given to us by Yeshua. Do not be deceived, but choose life and declare it, restoration is yours. Trust Adonai more than you trust the sickness or the problem and fight for what is yours. If you don't have any strength to fight get someone to pray for you, but you continue to repent and begin to do the Word and keep His commands. Take Communion daily and repent daily and Yeshua will stand in the gap for you. He is ever interceding through His covenant cut with His own flesh and blood.

Right after I was healed, people who knew me didn't even recognize me. They would say "do I know you?' Even a friend of 15 years stood face to face with me and didn't recognize me. That is true restoration. The Lord has brought me total restoration and transformation and I give Him all the praise and glory as my Savior and my King.

I pray in the name of Yeshua that Yahweh will give you a revelation of His truth, bring you to a place of true repentance, and complete you in His deliverance, healing and restoration paid for by the blood of His son. May Yahweh bless and keep you. May Yahweh make His face shine on you and show you His favor. May Yahweh lift up His face toward you and give you

Shalom. In this way may the name of Yahweh be put on you so He will bless you. (Numbers 6:24-27) In the name of Yeshua, Amen.

CHAPTER 7

THE SABBATH REFRESHING

The very universe is established on the law of Sabbath. The stars and the sun and the moon operate on the laws established by Yahweh at creation to appear in their proper hour and day, or appointed times. Should we not also operate in the proper timing Yahweh Himself established and obeys? He waits there for us to come and enter in with Him, and calls it the time of His (moedim) visitation as we keep His appointed times of Sabbaths. It is our wedding ring that proves we are His, a sign between us and Him.

Ex 31:13 -

"Speak also to the children of Israel, saying: 'Surely My Sabbaths you shall keep, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the Lord who sanctifies you.

Hebrews 4:3 says that Yahweh's "works of the Sabbath have been in existence since the founding of the universe." It is part of, if you will, the DNA of the universe and the covenant of life. Verses 1 and 2 say that the "promise remains" through the entering of His rest (the Sabbath). We enter into being "that promise" by entering into the rest of the Lord. This is the entry to the land of promise. A place where we can dwell in the fullness of the Lord and He and the Son will dwell with us there. Keeping the appointed times of Yahweh is the sign between us and Him that we are His. It is our wedding ring, so to speak, and our place of entering the throne room to be with Yahweh. The Sabbath rest is established in all of creation and even in the Creator as it says "And God rested on the seventh day from all of His works."

If Yahweh enters into Sabbath rest every week to wait for us there, why aren't we running into His arms?

Ex 12:49 - One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."

Exodus 20:1-11

1 And God spoke all these words, saying: 2 "I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. 3 You shall have no other gods before Me. 4 "You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; 5 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments. 7 "You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain. 8 "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. 9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10 but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God. In it you shall do no work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates. 11 For in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it.

So His mercy comes to those who love Him, and keep His commandments. Torah is essential to the child of promise and the keeping of the Sabbaths of Adonai are the foundation and evidence of obedience to Torah.

Ex 31:17 -

It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.' "

Remember in chapter 1 how the elder said that the Lord had "refreshing" for someone there? Well here it is in the Word, that the refreshing comes from entering the Sabbath. I think we all need refreshing especially the bride so she will be full when the bride groom arrives. Yahweh has refreshing to give, and it results in fullness.

Here is what the dictionary says about the word refreshing:
re-freshed, re-fresh-ing, re-fresh-es

To revive with or as if with rest, food, or drink; give new vigor or spirit to. To give new freshness or brightness to; restore.

To make cool, clean, or moist; freshen up.

To renew by stimulation: refresh one's memory.

To fill up again; replenish: refresh a drink.

Yeshua said in John 14:15 "if you love me, keep my commands.

Hebrews 3:18 says that it was disobedience that caused Yahweh to swear in anger that they would not enter into His rest because they did not trust. If you love Him you will obey, and to love Him is to trust that He is Messiah, so disobedience must be lack of love for Yeshua.

John 14 verse 10 says that Yahweh was disgusted with that generation because “they have not understood how I do things.”

It sounds like He wants us to do things the way that He does them, and rest with Him on the Sabbaths of the Lord. (Be holy as I am Holy). He also wants us to love Him with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength and pay attention to Him and cling to Him. (Deuteronomy 30). John 14:23 says “Yeshua answered him” If anyone loves me, he will keep my word; and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. Someone who doesn’t love me, doesn’t keep my words--- and the word you are hearing is not my own but that of the Father who sent me.”

We are to be TERRIFIED (Hebrews 4:1) of the possibility that even though the promise remains of entering His rest that we not fall short of it by not entering in obedience to “remember the Sabbath and keep it Holy”. All through scripture it says “fear not” and to only fear Yahweh. Yet here is a command to be “terrified” of falling short of entering His appointed times.

The Sabbaths of Yahweh are all dress rehearsals of the things that lead up to the millennial rest that comes at the end of days. If we don’t show up for dress rehearsal how can we be part of the final production?

David prophesied this and said “Today if you hear God’s voice, don’t harden your hearts.” ... “ let us do our best to enter that rest; so that no one will fall short because of the same kind of disobedience.”

The Torah tells Israel that they are to KEEP HIS SABBATHS as a PERPETUAL COMMAND (never ending) and THE FOREIGNER WHO DWELLS IN THE LAND WITH THEM (all who have joined themselves to Yahweh). THEY ARE NOT JEWISH FEASTS, THEY ARE YAHWEH’S FEASTS.

This is why the Children of Promise must be keepers and doers of the Word. They will keep the Commands of Adonai and hunger to keep all of HIS Sabbaths as an appointed time and meeting place with Him. They have come out of Babylon and all of the lies that Constantine handed down to the fathers of Christianity. They must fight for the right to see the truth in the Torah and commands of Yahweh. They must return again to the Temple of our King and cleanse the pig (pagan practices) off of the altar like the Maccabees. Then light the lamp of the Spirit of the Lord with consecrated oil. It's not how much oil you have, and it's never too late, but you must return and light the fire of the Spirit and walk once again in the truth. Don't hide your light under a bushel but let it shine before men. The Children of Promise have cleansed their Temple and rededicated it to the True and Living Yahweh. They are worshipping Him in Spirit and in Truth and dwell in His throne room where there is abundance in all things and there is no lack.

Hebrews 4:1 says "Therefore let us be terrified of the possibility that even though the promise of entering the rest remains, any one of you might be judged to have fallen short of it."

Tribulation and persecution are coming and I pray that the deceitfulness of riches (love of money), the cares of this world (love of self) will not keep you from the truth. I also pray that understanding will come to your heart for the word of the Lord and His truth. May His seed fall on the rich ground of a teachable heart.

We can be like the children of promise in the wilderness, they had enough manna to last the entire Sabbath because they obeyed and trusted that they could gather enough for both days and it wouldn't mold or waste away like on other days. They walked in shoes and clothing that never wore out. They lacked nothing including the covering and protection of Yahweh. This is a prophetic picture of the end times. If we will enter the Sabbath with Yahweh, whatever we enter in with, will be enough, won't spoil, will be multiplied, and won't run out or wear out if we are keeping His Torah. Here is the covenant of promise that was given to them by Yahweh. Leviticus 26:1-13

I am the Lord your God. 2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I am the Lord. 3 'If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments, and perform them, 4 then I will give you rain in its season, the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. 5 Your threshing shall last till the time of vintage, and the vintage shall last till the time of sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. 6 I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land. 7 You will chase your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you. 8 Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword before you. 9 'For I will look on you favorably and make you fruitful, multiply you and confirm My covenant with you. 10 You shall eat the old harvest, and clear out the old because of the new. 11 I will set My tabernacle among you, and My soul shall not abhor you. 12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you shall be My people. 13 I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you walk upright.

The New King James Version

“SO THERE REMAINS A SABBATH-KEEPING FOR GOD’S PEOPLE.” It has been promised to us for these end times as a blessing and a place of entry into safety, fruitfulness, fellowship with Yahweh, rain, abundance in all things, healing, brideship, authority, His Kingdom and His presence. All this comes through trust in the Lord of The Sabbath, Yeshua our Messiah.

David prophesied about the resting place of Yahweh and said “Today if you hear God’s voice, don’t harden your hearts.” So let us do our best to enter that rest; so that no one will fall short because of the same kind of disobedience.

To be under the blessing of the Child of Promise it doesn’t matter how much we have it will be enough.

CHAPTER 8

THE KEY OF DAVID AND THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY

When Elijah approached the widow and asked for her last morsel of food, she believed that she and her son would soon die from hunger due to the famine. The widow and her son survived the famine, by giving that last morsel, because their belief changed and they trusted and believed in the prophesy that Elijah spoke, that their food wouldn't run out. Elijah had the testimony of prophesy, which is the spirit of Yeshua. Revelation 19:10 proclaims : "Worship God! For the testimony of Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy.") The food lasted throughout the entire famine, for both the prophet, and the widow.

Revelation 3:10-13 says:

10 Because you kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

We have been given the spirit of prophecy to call those things that aren't as though they were. And by the key of David held by Yeshua of entering into the Sabbath, and the spirit of prophecy which is His testimony we are the children of promise. His bride can now walk in the life more abundant He has promised us and worship God in spirit and in truth. Even if we enter in with nothing, the Lord will send ravens to feed us. And if anyone who isn't a child of promise shares with us and trusts the word of prophecy when it is proclaimed, the blessing runs over on them.

David prophesied about the resting place of Yahweh and said "Today if you hear God's voice, don't harden your hearts." He said to let us do our best to enter that rest; so that no one will fall short because of the same kind of disobedience

Hebrews 4:1-10

1 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. 2 For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3 For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said: "So I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest,' " although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works"; 5 and again in this place: "They shall not enter My rest." 6 Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, 7 again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said: "Today, if you will hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts." 8 For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. 10 For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

"Yahweh said IN David" (prophesied) that after such a long time if you will hear the words of prophesy and not harden your hearts, that you may enter in to the rest. It says this day has been "designated" by Yahweh through the words spoken by David.

Remember the beans being multiplied? It was designated by words spoken but ordained by Yahweh. Remember the steaks appearing at the store and bringing abundant provision? It was designated by Yahweh by the testimony given and received. Remember the burned mashed potatoes having no flavor of smoke upon them? It was designated by Yahweh by the proclamation of the promise in prayer.

I believe that entering the resting place brings us under divine protection and abundant provision that will protect us from any foe or threat in these last days. It is the place of refuge, safety, comfort and fellowship with Abba. However, the book of Hebrews says that it has been shut by Yahweh in His anger because of the disobedience and lack of trust of the children in the wilderness. If it has been shut then why does David prophesy of the rest remaining?

Isaiah 22:22 says "I will place the key of David's house on His shoulder; no one will shut what He opens; no one will open what He shuts."

Re 3:7 – Says:

"To the angel of the Messianic Community in Philadelphia, write: 'Here is the message of HaKadosh, the True One, the one who has the key of David, who, if he opens something, no one else can shut it, and if he closes something, no one else can open it.'

The word "key" in Hebrew is maphteach. In all cases this word is used as a physical key except in Isaiah 22:22 where it is used in the spiritual. It is speaking prophetically of Yeshua our Messiah and the authority that would be given to Him. Maphteach (key) means AN OPENING, as in the place of rest which Yahweh closed to the disobedient and promised they would not enter. Yet He prophesied that there remained an opening to that rest. There is a key that will open it to us. Key in Hebrew can also mean instrument as in an instrument to “gain entrance.”

The Lord of the Sabbath, Yeshua, according to Isaiah 22, has the Key of David resting on His shoulders to open or close. A key is used to unlock something and to gain entrance. Yahweh locked the entrance of the rest to the children of promise that came out in the Exodus from Egypt because of their disobedience. But the Lord of the Sabbath holds the keys to open that which is locked to those who are obedient to the instructions of Torah.

The instrument that opens the place to the rest is walking in obedience to Torah and keeping the Sabbaths of Yahweh. That instrument is held by Yeshua and we must also trust He is Messiah and Lord of the Sabbath. The children didn't enter in because they were disobedient and didn't trust. Trust and obedience are necessary to walk in this place of rest and protection.

Revelation 19:10 says that the testimony of Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy. David prophesied that a rest remained for the end time obedient children of promise. And Yeshua arrived as the spirit of prophecy with the keys of David to open that resting place for us, the ones who would obey the commands of the Lord, because we love Him.

Remember what it said in Revelation 3:7&8 It says that the True one who has the key of David..... “I HAVE PUT IN FRONT OF YOU AN OPEN DOOR AND NO ONE CAN SHUT IT.....you have obeyed my message and have not disowned me.”

The key of David makes clear the association between a physically circumcised Israelite living under the laws of Yahweh written on stone tablets and a spiritually circumcised Israelite keeping the Sabbath and living under the laws of Yahweh written on the fleshly tablets of our hearts.

The rest that Y'hoshua (Joshua) gave the nation of Israel in the natural was a physical place beyond the Jordan River. The rest Yeshua has given us is in the spiritual realm which is the Sabbath. Hebrews 10:1 says the law (instruction) is a shadow of good things to come. Because of our trusting in Yeshua the Lord of the Sabbath, and obeying the command to remember the Sabbath and keep it Holy, we have been granted this end time place opened by the Keys of David, who is also a child of promise, to an entrance into the Heavenly realm with our Abba. David prophesied about “the rest” that remains for the people of Yahweh and said it would remain for a later day. It is for this day and hour, that is why there is such a stirring in the bride to do the whole Word of the Lord and keep His Sabbaths. New waves continue to go out and people are getting so hungry for truth and finding it in the Torah (first five books of the Bible) and finding their place in truth and spirit.

Heb 4:16 – says:

“Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

This verse follows the ones instructing us to be terrified if we don’t enter in to the rest of Sabbath. Here immediately after entering we are at the throne of grace at the time of need. So the Sabbath is “the key” to being in the presence of Yahweh and Yeshua was the first fruits of entering in.

Remember what Revelation 3:12 said:

“12 He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Yerushalayim, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name. 13 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

Here it says if we are an overcomer we become a pillar in the Temple of Yahweh and we never leave that position or place.

Hebrews 4: 14 says :14 Therefore, since we have a great Cohen gadol (high priest) who has passed through to the highest heaven, Yeshua, the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we acknowledge as true.

The overcomer is someone who holds firmly to what they acknowledge as truth and has entered into the Temple of Yahweh (the throne of grace). They will not leave during times of needing grace and mercy but remain as a pillar holding up the Torah of Yahweh and under His divine protection.

In essence what the Word is saying is, that by entering into the resting place which has been opened by the key of David resting on Yeshua’s shoulders we may come with confidence into the throne room by entering into the Sabbaths of Adonai. The key could only be given to a sinless obedient man, the Son of Yahweh. The spirit of Yeshua that prophesied, called forth healings, and raised the dead even on the Sabbath. For nothing made has “being” without Him. In other words if He didn’t prophesy it into existence, it has NO BEING.

So to keep the Shabbats of Yahweh and by trusting in Yeshua our Lord of the Sabbath, we walk in the promised place of blessing dwelling in the house of Adonai, in His Kingdom, under full blessings as the children of promise. We are able to receive the 100 fold blessing promise and mercy and grace far beyond anything we can ask or think. This was prepared for the end time as there needs to be a hiding place and a place of safety for the Lord to hide His children, and what better place to hide than in His throne room in the shadow of The Most High.

This is what David prophesied about “the rest” that remains for the people of Yahweh. It is for this day and hour, that is why there is such a stirring in the bride to do the whole Word of the Lord and keep His Sabbaths. New waves continue to go out and people are getting so hungry for truth and finding it in the Torah (first five books of the Bible).

Remember what it said in Revelation 3:7&8 It says that the True one who has the key of David..... “I have put in front of you an open door and no one can shut it.....you have obeyed my message and have not disowned me.” Then remember what it says in Hebrews following the call to the keep the Sabbath rest, “therefore let us confidently approach the throne from which God gives grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace “in our time of need.” The door has been opened and we have never been in a greater time of need than now.

Revelation 3:10 again says: Because you kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

The door has been opened to us by following Yeshua who has passed through the highest Heaven into the throne room. If we keep His word of truth we will be kept from the hour of testing that comes on the whole world. The children of promise have been excluded from the testing as they have entered in by the key of David opening the door and they have Yahweh’s name written upon them.

Remember in the Lion has roared visitation (chapter 1), the angels wrote the name of Yahweh on the foreheads of the Sabbath keeping brides in the bridal chamber. They have been sealed by the Lord and have entered in to the place of rest and safety.

We have been given the spirit of prophecy to call those things that aren't as though they were. And by the key of David held by Yeshua of entering into the Sabbath, and the spirit of prophecy which is His testimony we are the children of promise. His bride can now walk in the life more abundant He has promised us and worship God in spirit and in truth. Even if we enter in with nothing, the Lord will send ravens to feed us. And if anyone who isn't a child of promise shares with us and trusts the word of prophecy when it is proclaimed, the blessing runs over on them.

“SO THERE REMAINS A SABBATH-KEEPING FOR GOD’S PEOPLE.”
It has been opened to us as Yahweh's promise to us for these end times as a blessing and a place of entry into His throne room of protection, His Kingdom, His blessings, His abundance, His promise, and His presence. May Yahweh be praised and receive all the glory.

The Children of Promise are a people who walk in the truth of the Word of Yahweh and aren't deceived by the traditions of men.

They will stay in His presence until they are complete and full and running over with His words of promise.

They are sealed with the name of Yahweh by being completed in Him by obedience to the Commands of the Lord.

They have been completed in their trust by knowing Yeshua as Messiah as faith added to truth equals promise.

They walk in spirit and in truth.

They also know Yeshua as the Lord of the Sabbath.

They have chosen “life” by being willing to give up this life to be in His presence and seek His face.

They are wisely waiting in the bridal chamber full of the oil of His presence.

They walk in the spirit of prophecy which is the testimony of Yeshua.

They have entered into the throne room of Yahweh through the open door provided by keeping the Sabbath and remain there in His presence.

They are a bride completed in entering the Sabbath, as Yahweh was complete with the creation and entered the Sabbath.

So it doesn't matter where you are, even if its next to a nuclear facility, He has positioned you and will cover you like the three men in the Bible who came out of the fiery furnace unharmed, because you are engraved in the palm of His hand. It doesn't matter how much we have or don't have, if we only have enough for one cake or only have one son like our father Abraham, it is enough if we entertain the Lord in our house by loving Him and welcoming him in with our obedience to His Torah and appointed times. Put on your wedding ring and don't deny Him, and nothing by any means shall harm you, He's waiting to meet with you. You have an appointment with the Most High already, on the Sabbath. Shalom blessings.

If you have found conviction about not keeping the times of Yahweh that He commanded us to keep, or not walking in the fullness of His spirit and truth, here is a prayer of repentance and deliverance. Remember that repentance is teshuva or turning back to Yahweh. It is not saying I'm sorry and continuing on the road you are on.

My Abba, Yahweh, I ask forgiveness for my self, my family, and my ancestors to a thousand generations and that you would pour out your mercy for the all the sins we may have committed against you and your Torah. I repent for the sins of missing the times and seasons of your meetings with us.

Jer 16:19 - says

O Lord, my strength and my fortress, My refuge in the day of affliction, The Gentiles shall come to You From the ends of the earth and say, "Surely our fathers have inherited lies, Worthlessness and unprofitable things."

Forgive us and our fathers for the inherited lies and worthless and unprofitable things. Forgive me for the fear of man and not being bold about my trust in Yahweh. I ask forgiveness for being rebellious, stubborn and proud.

I ask forgiveness for Deuteronomy 31:16 of being the harlot and going after false gods and breaking your covenant. I repent for myself, my family and my ancestors for participating in pagan feasts and holidays. I repent of the fear of lack when I am a child of promise and have need of nothing. For you have planned from the beginning how you would care for me in good times and in bad. I repent for myself and my ancestors for not learning your calendar, not observing your times and seasons and going up to meet with you, and not keeping the Sabbaths Holy as you've commanded us.

I repent for not learning the song of Moses as I was commanded to do in Deuteronomy 32:1-43, and for instead learning the songs of the enemy.

I evict you fear of man, blindness to truth of the Torah, blindness to the things of the Spirit, rebellion, false religion, stubbornness, pride, disobedience, religious spirits, belief in the Greek calendar, and demon inspired songs with all of their rhythms. Cleanse us Yeshua in all of these areas of sin completely, and leave no parts contaminated by the enemy of my soul.

I declare that I am free from all generational curses, inherited lies, and pagan beliefs. These are all broken over myself and my family and my ancestors including worthlessness and unprofitable things, (Jeremiah 16:19) by the power of Yeshua's blood and the grace that Yahweh delights in. Yahweh, you alone are my strength, my fortress and my refuge in the last days of affliction. I declare that I am a Child of Promise and now walk in the Promise, and abundant life that Yeshua bought, prepared and finished for me. (Reference: Leviticus 26:1-13) I will walk in your statutes and keep your commands to the best of my ability and reverence your sanctuary and your presence. I thank you for sending the rain in its season, and that the land shall yield its produce and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. I thank you for the harvest continuing to the new harvest and the time of sowing shall meet the time of eating our bread. And we shall be full and dwell in our land safely in shalom. We shall lie down and none will make us afraid. Thank you for ridding our land of evil beasts and the sword shall not go through our land. I will chase my enemies, they shall not chase me, and they will fall by the sword before my eyes. Five of our community will chase a hundred and a hundred of us will put ten thousand to flight and they will fall by the sword in our sight. Yahweh thank you for looking upon us favorably and making us fruitful, multiply, and confirming your covenant with us. We shall eat of the old harvest and make way for the new, by walking in spirit and in truth. Thank you for setting your tabernacle among us. We ask you to walk among us and be our God who has brought us out of the pagan ways of Egypt so we would no longer be a slave to sin. Break the bands of the yoke of bondage off of us and make us walk uprightly before you Yahweh, our Holy King. In Yeshua's holy name, Amen.

Chapter 9

PHOTOSYNTHESIS

This is the story that goes with the painting of Photosynthesis:

In the summer of 2005, I was in Israel at the time of Shavuot (Pentecost). I was on the Gush Katif Solidarity Tour. A group of ministers were invited by a Jewish man to come and pray for Gaza that her people wouldn't be cast out. It was a heartbreaking tour and a lot of intercession but not a lot touring, as we were sent by Yahweh to lift up His people in prayer. I had such an awesome visitation from Yahweh there, where I was shown the importance of praying for the shalom of Yerushalayim (Jerusalem). On the way home on the plane a woman of G-d came over and said "You received a prophecy in Israel and you are supposed to put it on a painting of a Menorah. My mouth fell to the floor as I knew this was the word of the Lord. Little did she know that before I left home I was working on a concept of a banner that was a Menorah with a rainbow over it that the colors represented the seven spirits of Yahweh. The rainbow is also a covenant. A circle is a covenant and the Earth is round. The other half of the circle of the rainbow cannot be seen but is completed when you add faith. For it is believing those things that are not, do exist, that defines faith. Airplane pilots have taken pictures from the air of the rainbow and it is round. In Heaven around Yahweh's throne is a completed circle rainbow. Yahweh completes the covenant thus Yahweh's covenant with the earth is completed by our trust in Him.

It took 3 months of design and another 3 months working with a commissioned artist whom Yahweh chose in such a supernatural way named Marilyn Sparks. I have not felt it was time to release the painting until about 4 am this morning 7-17-06. The war between Israel and Hezbollah is raging and Adonai wants to call up His army that has been prepared for such a time as this. As Daneilla Weiss, the Mayor of Kedumim spoke to us I saw clearly a vision of the Jews as an olive tree with its roots going deep into the ground. I saw branches in the air, waving in the wind (ruach) and clearly heard the Words of Yahweh. So hear what the Spirit had to say in Kedumim in the Holy Land in June of 2005 to the watchmen.

"In a place called Kedumim, which is "time immemorial". It means "extending back beyond memory, record, or knowledge." In this place of time unrecordable, I heard the voice of Adonai speak to me about the divine connection between the Jews and the believers in Mashiac and shalom in The Land of Israel. A woman of G-d spoke to us about her being called to battle for the land of promise by "the finger of G-d." It happened at the moment the war began on Yom Kippur many years before. She said the battles had been so difficult because "the victory was so close"...." yet the Jews would lose". She said, "yet we are happy to have redeemed another hill, because inside the Jew there is something burning". As the woman of G-d spoke, I suddenly saw her as the roots of a tree buried deep in the Land fighting the battle for shalom for Adonai. I then saw the branches waving in the air and I heard the voice of G-d speak and say, "The Jews are the (shoresh) roots and you are the (aneph) branches. Their battle is in the land because they dwell in the land. Your battle is in the air because you are the branches. If you do not war for them they cannot win the battle." He then spoke a single word..."Photosynthesis".

I wondered what Yahweh meant by photosynthesis so I went home and studied this process put in motion by Yahweh Himself. What I discovered was that it is a process that brings life and growth. (Choose life and the blessings Deut. 28) The root, the trunk, the branches, and the leaves all have their own jobs that work together to sustain life. Without one another they cannot survive. The root brings the water of the Word (Torah) and the nutrients (life giving truths) from the soil. While the branches (ones of the Spirit or Ruach) war in the heavenlies against the powers and principalities. Those branches contain the leaves (which represent the Torah) which absorb the light from the Son which is transformed in the trunk (Yeshua, Isaiah 11:1;2 the trunk of Jesse) into a life giving substance that brings forth the one new man (in Ephesians 2:14-15 which brings forth peace or shalom) For Yeshua himself is our Shalom. There can be no life without the water and nutrients (Torah in the Land aka the Jews), and the leaves on the branches (Torah on the believers in Mashiac). Only the leaves plus the branches can bring the light of the Son as they are in the air. The root (the Jews) cannot see the Son (sun) as they are in the Land (buried in the dirt). They must be uprooted (in exile) to see the light of day. They must recognize Yeshua as Messiah before the one new man can come forth as we can only be transformed in the trunk (Yeshua) where the whole process is completed to produce life and Shalom in the land. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, give Yahweh no rest until we are complete and His Shalom remains in His Holy city.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, grow powerful in union with the Lord, in union with his mighty strength! 11 Use all the armor and weaponry that God provides, so that you will be able to stand against the deceptive tactics of the Adversary. 12 For we are not struggling against human beings, but against the rulers, authorities and cosmic powers governing this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm. 13 So take up every piece of war equipment God provides; so that when the evil day comes, you will be able to resist; and when the battle is won, you will still be standing. 14 Therefore, stand! Have the belt of truth buckled around your waist, put on righteousness for a breastplate, 15 and wear on your feet the readiness that comes from the Good News of shalom. 16 Always carry the shield of trust, with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the Evil One. 17 And take the helmet of deliverance; along with the sword given by the Spirit, that is, the Word of God; 18 as you pray at all times, with all kinds of prayers and requests, in the Spirit, vigilantly and persistently, for all God's people.

Summary: When we answer our G-d given mandate to pray for the Shalom (peace) of Israel we unite with them and G-d's purpose. Our part is to absorb the light by doing warfare for them in the heavenlies, and their part is to bring the water from the Promise (land) so the two together create photosynthesis which releases the seven Spirits of G-d (the covenant). They cannot win the battle in the Land without our prayers. This is the birthing process to bring Mashiac (Messiah, Prince of Peace) and Shalom to Jerusalem to rule and reign thus releasing the Seven Spirits of G-d. Isaiah 11:

1 There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse, And a Branch shall grow out of his roots. 2 The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him, The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, The Spirit of counsel and might, The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord. 3 His delight is in the fear of the Lord, And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, Nor decide by the hearing of His ears; 4 But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, And decide with equity for the meek of the earth; He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. 5 Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins, And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

9 For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord As the waters cover the sea.

10 "And in that day there shall be a Root of Jesse, Who shall stand as a banner to the people; For the Gentiles shall seek Him, And His resting place shall be glorious."

Isaiah 62:6-7 " You who call on Adonai give yourselves no rest and give Him no rest till He restores Yerushalayim (Jerusalem) and makes it a praise in the earth.

Psalms 122:6-9 PRAY for the Shalom of Yerushalayim. Those who love you will prosper. Shalom be within your walls and prosperity in your palaces. For my brothers and companions sakes I will now say 'Shalom be within you'. For the sake of the house of the L-rd our G-d, I will seek your good."

Isaiah 62:6 " I have posted watchmen on your walls Yerushalayim, they will never fall silent, neither by day or by night "

Romans 11: 16-18 "And if the root is holy so are the branches.....you a wild olive- were grafted in among them and have become equal sharers in the rich root of the olive tree.....remember that you are not supporting the root, the root is supporting you."

Ephesians 2:12 "at that time had no Messiah, you were estranged from the national life of Israel. You were foreigners to the covenants embodying G_d's promise. But now you who were far off have been brought near through the shedding of the Messiah's blood. For He himself is our Shalom - He has made us both one and has broken down the middle wall of partition which divided us.....He did this in order to create in union with himself one new humanity and thus make Shalom."

Revelation 22: 2 The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
3 And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him.

Notice that Jews and believers in Mashiach working together as one, bring Shalom. WE MUST answer the call to war for our brothers and sisters in Israel by prayer while they fight risking their very lives for the Promised Land. If they win so do we.

I also asked Yahweh to tell me why we pray and pray for the shalom of Jerusalem and no shalom comes. On the sea of Galilee I felt shalom so mightily and that is when He spoke to me and said "My shalom has remained here because I spoke to this sea "shalom be still" during the storm. Jerusalem is not at peace yet because shalom has not remained."

It was clear to me that, that is why we must give Him no rest until He restores and makes it a praise in the Earth, and why we must continue to pray for the peace of Jerusalem. Shalom has yet to remain there. When Yeshua stands on the Temple Mount in His return and conquers His enemies, then shalom will remain. In the meantime we must continue to obey His command to pray. Photosynthesis...someday, His day.
